City Gets Stuck With Pony

It was an "oats and water" diet today for this involuntary city prisoner after police arrested its rider early this morning while he rested on the lawn of Westgate School.

Although the pony obviously had violated the parking ban listed on the sign, it was receiving considerable attention from children and City Hall visitors.

Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr., foreground, and Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross are shown feeding the pony oats after the director made a hasty trip to acquire the feed.

Patrolman William E. Nott and Paul A. Burson Jr. said they found Lawrence Clark of Shadyside Ave. lying in the grass at Westgate School at 12:30 a. m. with the pony tethered to his leg.

"He was intoxicated; the pony was sober," the officers reported.

Clark was taken to police headquarters in a cruiser. Fellow officers said Nott rode the animal to the station. The pony is owned by Clarence Flowers, police said.

Clark drew a fine of $10 and costs from Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw on the intoxication count. City officials pointed out if he had been nabbed riding the pony he could have been charged under a city ordinance for reckless driving of a horse.

How long the city will retain custody of the pony depends on how soon Clark pays his fine. Intoxication defendants unable to pay generally serve five days.

Wants Division Of Germany

U.S. Spokesman Attacks Recent Khrushchev Talks

GENEVA (AP)—A U.S. spokesman charged today that Premier Khrushchev's latest speeches show the Soviet Union wants to perpetuate the division of Germany.

Assistant Secretary of State Andrew H. Berding declared that in statements made by the Soviet premier on his current visit to Poland "we find a strange contradiction to any idea of reunification of East and West Germany."

"It looks like (he wants) the perpetuation of the present division of Germany," Berding said.

He spoke with newsmen soon after foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany met for 90 minutes on strategy in the Big Four conference.

Western informants said the four remained pessimistic about chances of workout out a stopgap Berlin settlement with Russia.

High Western leaders said Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko is trying to exploit Western differences and that the need for unity is growing more urgent daily.

Some experts believe that, until the West can present a united front in the Big Four foreign ministers' conference, it has little prospect of achieving any of its objectives in the current phase of negotiations on Berlin.

The issue dividing the United States and Britain from France and West Germany is what kind of negotiations should be proposed to Gromyko on a German peace settlement during the period of a Berlin truce agreement.

Western officials said it probably would be sometime next week before a decision could be reached among the Allies on this problem. But several informants privately conceded it was the crucial question before the Western foreign ministers in their discussions.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, Britain's Selwyn Lloyd, Maurice Couve de Murville of France and West Germany's Heinrich Von Brentano arranged to hold strategy talks during the weekend lull in their sessions with Gromyko.

Before them was the record of a secret three-hour luncheon talk they had with the Soviet foreign minister Friday — a record that Herter reportedly found discouraging because it produced no progress toward narrowing East - West differences.

Herter, Lloyd and Couve de Murville made repeated efforts to find out from Gromyko what specific pledge the Soviet Union is willing to give to protect the Western position in West Berlin during and after the proposed 18-month truce period.

Authoritative sources said he consistently refused to give direct replies.

Eisenhower Acts To Clear Bohlen Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has taken steps to correct the impression that he is cool to the idea of bringing Ambassador Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen back to Washington as an expert on the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower authorized his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, to announce Friday that nothing could be farther from the truth than reports that the President lacks confidence in Bohlen. He said he has a great deal of confidence in him. The President was reported dismayed that references by him to Bohlen at the presidential news conference Wednesday had been misinterpreted.

Nothing more definite was said, but the President's effort to put the record straight appeared to make it pretty certain that Bohlen's deep knowledge of the Soviet Union would be put to use in an important policy making job in Washington.

Bohlen, veteran career diplomat, is ambassador to the Philippines. He had been the ambassador to Moscow.

Bohlen has let it be known that he will retire after 35 years' service unless he is given a more important job in the State Department.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told a news conference July 9 that he had talked with Bohlen about a Washington post. He wasn't specific.

Total Of Knowles Loss In Fire To Hit $50,000

Newell firemen said today total damage is expected to exceed $50,000 as a result of a fire which leveled a wooden storage shed July 7 at the Edwin M. Knowles China Co.

The firm's insurance company has been making a complete check of the contents of the building. The blaze is believed to have been ignited by spontaneous combustion, as about 30 tons of straw were stored in the 100-x-100-foot structure, firemen said.

Damage first was reported unofficially at $40,000 following a quick check by the firm. Destroyed were two company vehicles, large amounts of cardboard packing cartons, miscellaneous equipment and repair parts for machinery.

Steel Strike Starts Biting Defense Jobs

Completion Of 3 Missile Launching Sites Are Snarled

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The fourday - old steel strike, currently pinching the nation's economy, is beginning to put a dent in national defense work.

The strike has already snarled plans for the completion of three Atlas missile launching sites near Cheyenne, Wyo., according to construction officials.

The first site, scheduled for completion on Sept. 20, will be finished in time. But high pressure tanks for the other sites are not expected to be delivered in time for the November completion date because of the strike, the officials said.

As for the economic situation, the nation's steel production losses continue to mount. Production losses are estimated at 300 million dollars a week. Wage losses are running close to 70 million dollars a week.

The strike, which began at Tuesday midnight, has idled some 500,000 members of the United Steelworkers and some 35,000 workers in allied industries, such as railroads, coal mines and transportation.

Negotiations are stalemated. Federal mediation commissioners have slated separate talks with both sides for Monday in New York.

President Eisenhower and James P. Mitchell, secretary of labor, conferred on the situation in Washington Friday. Details of the conference were not released.

The stumbling block in negotiations proved to be the union's demand for increased wages and improved fringe benefits. The industry refused any concessions. It said these concessions would hike labor costs. Steelworkers had been averaging $3.10 an hour before the strike.

Burglar Flees Without Loot

Approaching Officer Frightens Intruder

A quantity of small electrical appliances was removed from the Smith & Phillips Co. store on Washington St. Friday night or early today, but the burglar apparently abandoned most of the merchandise when he heard a foot patrolman approaching.

Patrolman R. B. Pyle discovered the burglary after he found an open loading door in W. Drury Ln. at 3:03 a. m. while on a foot beat.

The thief apparently gained entrance through a window on the south side of the building, the officer said.

During the investigation, Lt. Michael Winters and Officer Pyle found merchandise on some steps of the former Olsen building across the alley.

The loot included a portable television set, table radio, electric mixer, air purifier, electric clock and transistor radio, police said. Police said other items may have been taken, but it cannot be determined finally until a stock inventory can be made.

Police At Chester Grab 2 Unlicensed Machines

Two peanut vending machines were confiscated by police this morning at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. plant because their operator had not obtained the new Chester city licenses required after July 1, Mayor Burton Ward reported.

The mayor said the machines are owned by Mario DeSteffano of Follansbee. The machines also lacked state licenses, he added.

Notices were mailed in June to all out-of-town operators of Chester vending machines, advising them that the new permits would be required July 1, beginning of the city's fiscal year, the mayor explained.

Senate Labor Bill Rewritten By House Unit

Bitter Battle Seen When Measure Goes To House Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate's labor bill, controversial to start with, now has been almost completely rewritten in many important provisions by the House Labor Committee.

There is sure to be a free-wheeling donnybrook to "re-rewrite" it when it reaches the House floor, probably next week.

Republicans said the House bill is much weaker in its labor control codes than the Senate-approved version. The committee Friday finished five weeks of working over the Senate bill.

More than 100 amendments took much of the severity out of the "bill of rights" for union members that was grafted onto the original Senate bill sponsored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Sam Ervin (D-NC). The "bill of rights" was the contribution of Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate committee which has been investigating labor abuses.

The House bill also rewrites provisions for union election safeguards, revision of the Taft-Hartley Act and other key sections.

As its final act the House committee eliminated the Senate proposal for a voluntary code of ethics to be adopted by unions and management.

Democrats were generally noncommittal about the revised bill.

Privately, many congressmen conceded the House bill was one that nobody liked very much.

Blaze Destroys House In Hammondsville Area

The five-room home of Mr. and Mrs. Dock Johnson of Hammondsville R. D., near New Salisbury, was destroyed by fire about 10:30 p. m. Friday Highlandtown volunteer firemen reported. The fire was blamed on a faulty oil stove. Mrs. Johnson, alone and without a telephone, went to the Ray Stephens home to call firemen. The fire had such a start that firemen could not save the house.

The home is owned by the H. K. Porter Co. of Pittsburgh. About 12 volunteers answered the call.

92 High Slated But Rain's Due Over Weekend

A master of consistency, except when it comes to forecasting rain, the Ohio weatherman said the temperature will hit a 92-degree high this afternoon for the second consecutive day.

However, the weatherman went out on a limb again today with a forecast of scattered showers Sunday—a promise of relief after two hot, humid days.

Friday's forecast also called for showers, but none materialized. But somebody got the weatherman's showers, because a stiff, cool breeze blew into the area about 9 last night, just in time to drop the mercury to a more pleasant range for sleeping.

At noon yesterday, the mercury stood at 82, but it jumped 10 degrees in the next three hours and hit 92 at 3 p. m. The 92-degree reading remained until 6 last night. The mercury fell to 83 at 9. It went on down to 77 at midnight.

The overnight low was 72, recorded between 5 and 7 this morning. But broad daylight brought an upturn. In the hour between 7 and 8 the mercury climbed 3 degrees.

Today's high will range from 87 to 92 and the overnight low will be 68-72. The Sunday forecast calls for cloudy and cooler weather, with scattered showers.

Officers Push Search For Man Who Fled Jail

SALINEVILLE — The search continued today for a Water St. man who escaped Thursday night from the village jail, where he was being held on a charge of cutting with intent to wound.

Raymond Crum pried open the bars on a jail window sometime during the night. He was being held for knifing his landlady, Fannie Sturgill of Water St. He allegedly cut her leg with a butcher knife at the home Thursday afternoon.

Police Chief Cleo Mellott said he conducted a search until 2:30 a. m. today for Crum. He said he believes the man is hiding somewhere in the Salineville vicinity. The Columbiana County Sheriff's department and all district constables have been asked to aid in the search.

Patrolman Tom Wilson discovered the escape early Friday morning when he made a check of jail bullpen.

Compromise Aid Measure Draws Blast

Chairman Of House Appropriations Unit Says It's Too High

WASHINGTON (AP) — A compromise $3,556,200,000 foreign aid authorization bill drew a verbal brickbat today from the man who will have a lot to say about how much money is provided to make it work.

Only $353,200,000 short of the $3,909,400,000 requested by President Eisenhower, the bill was hammered out Friday by Senate-House conferees and will be considered by the House next Wednesday.

The measure merely provides authority for continuation of the program to help friendly nations stem the tide of communism through economic and military build-up.

A separate bill putting up the cash must be acted on later.

Rep. Otto E. Passman (D-La), chairman of a House appropriations subcommittee which will draft the financing measure, took a dim view of the authorization bill. He called it "entirely too high and unrealistic" and said that "as usual it is in keeping with the wishful thinking of the President."

Passman wouldn't say how much he believed the appropriations should be cut, but House leaders have tossed around the figure of half a billion dollars or more. The foreign aid bill offers them their biggest opportunity to make a sizeable cut in the President's over-all appropriation requests for 1960.

Passman also looked with disfavor on a provision of the compromise measure shifting military aid next year to the regular Defense Department budget for a two-year trial period. The obvious effect of that provision would be to remove jurisdiction over foreign aid defense appropriations from Passman's subcommittee.

Pleas Mount For Him Not To Quit Post

Cabinet Pledges Support; Refuses His Move To Quit

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro today forced out President Manuel Urrutia and touched off a mounting clamor to withdraw his own resignation as prime minister.

The 32-year-old Castro began his campaign to get rid of the man he personally chose as chief of state Friday by announcing his own resignation.

Osvaldo Dorticos, who was elected Cuba's new President, made a public appeal to Castro to stay in the government.

The cabinet pledged support to him and refused to accept his resignation.

Castro emerged triumphant in a dramatic show of strength that proved him Cuba's undisputed strongman and whether he remains as prime minister was clearly his own choice.

After a four-hour television speech accusing Urrutia of undermining the revolutionary regime, Castro was asked by American correspondents whether he would withdraw his resignation.

"I have not given that a thought at this moment," he replied.

Revolucion, organ of Castro's 26th of July Movement, said that Dorticos will confer with the prime minister at 10 a.m. and a special cabinet meeting has been called for 2 p.m.

The newspaper said that public pressure for Castro to stay as prime minister was so heavy that it is certain the President will make a new appeal for him to remain in the government.

The undercover feud between the prime minister and Urrutia, Castro's hand-picked President, came to a head in a fight over communism.

Feeling ran high against the deposed president and he appealed to Raul Castro, commander in chief of the armed forces, for protection.

Urrutia remained in the presidential palace for more than three hours after resigning and then slipped out by using a ruse to throw off the angry crowd waiting outside.

While two cars sped out of opposite palace gates to draw away the crowd Urrutia and his family slipped into a limousine and raced through the main entrance. With him were his wife and three children, including 1-year-old Libertad (Liberty) who is Castro's goddaughter.

Shouting that he is no Communist, Castro told a TV audience that Urrutia tried to betray the revolutionary regime by posing as "the champion of anti-communism."

His voice quivering, Castro said: "I have often said I am not a Communist and neither is the revolutionary movement Communist, but we do not have to say we are anti-Communists just to fawn on foreign powers."

92 High Slated But Rain's Due Over Weekend

A master of consistency, except when it comes to forecasting rain, the Ohio weatherman said the temperature will hit a 92-degree high this afternoon for the second consecutive day.

However, the weatherman went out on a limb again today with a forecast of scattered showers Sunday—a promise of relief after two hot, humid days.

Friday's forecast also called for showers, but none materialized. But somebody got the weatherman's showers, because a stiff, cool breeze blew into the area about 9 last night, just in time to drop the mercury to a more pleasant range for sleeping.

At noon yesterday, the mercury stood at 82, but it jumped 10 degrees in the next three hours and hit 92 at 3 p. m. The 92-degree reading remained until 6 last night. The mercury fell to 83 at 9. It went on down to 77 at midnight.

The overnight low was 72, recorded between 5 and 7 this morning. But broad daylight brought an upturn. In the hour between 7 and 8 the mercury climbed 3 degrees.

Today's high will range from 87 to 92 and the overnight low will be 68-72. The Sunday forecast calls for cloudy and cooler weather, with scattered showers.

Officers Push Search For Man Who Fled Jail

SALINEVILLE — The search continued today for a Water St. man who escaped Thursday night from the village jail, where he was being held on a charge of cutting with intent to wound.

Raymond Crum pried open the bars on a jail window sometime during the night. He was being held for knifing his landlady, Fannie Sturgill of Water St. He allegedly cut her leg with a butcher knife at the home Thursday afternoon.

Police Chief Cleo Mellott said he conducted a search until 2:30 a. m. today for Crum. He said he believes the man is hiding somewhere in the Salineville vicinity. The Columbiana County Sheriff's department and all district constables have been asked to aid in the search.

Patrolman Tom Wilson discovered the escape early Friday morning when he made a check of jail bullpen.

Compromise Aid Measure Draws Blast

Chairman Of House Appropriations Unit Says It's Too High

WASHINGTON (AP) — A compromise $3,556,200,000 foreign aid authorization bill drew a verbal brickbat today from the man who will have a lot to say about how much money is provided to make it work.

Only $353,200,000 short of the $3,909,400,000 requested by President Eisenhower, the bill was hammered out Friday by Senate-House conferees and will be considered by the House next Wednesday.

The measure merely provides authority for continuation of the program to help friendly nations stem the tide of communism through economic and military build-up.

A separate bill putting up the cash must be acted on later.

Rep. Otto E. Passman (D-La), chairman of a House appropriations subcommittee which will draft the financing measure, took a dim view of the authorization bill. He called it "entirely too high and unrealistic" and said that "as usual it is in keeping with the wishful thinking of the President."

Passman wouldn't say how much he believed the appropriations should be cut, but House leaders have tossed around the figure of half a billion dollars or more. The foreign aid bill offers them their biggest opportunity to make a sizeable cut in the President's over-all appropriation requests for 1960.

Passman also looked with disfavor on a provision of the compromise measure shifting military aid next year to the regular Defense Department budget for a two-year trial period. The obvious effect of that provision would be to remove jurisdiction over foreign aid defense appropriations from Passman's subcommittee.

Business, Industry Gain

Continuing to make a comeback from the 1958 recession, business and industry in the East Liverpool area generally showed improvement in the first six months of 1959 over the first half of last year.

The monthly business review prepared by the Chamber of Commerce showed gains in 9 of the 13 indices used in the survey, along with gains in 11 categories in June over the May totals.

The summary for the first six months showed strong gains for sales tax receipts, generally a key to retail business activity, postal receipts, railroad carloadings, river traffic and tonnage and new car sales.

Minor gains were shown in bank clearings and debits, while declines were reported in payrolls and employment at 11 factories, parking meter receipts and relief cases.

Payrolls in the 11 factories dropped 2.4 per cent in the first six months — from $6,683,891 to $6,522,156 in the first half of this year. However, the payrolls jumped sharply in June from May's totals, with a gain of 108 per cent.

THE PAYROLLS climbed from $688,151 in May to $1,433,227 last month, apparently from two effects — the end of a general pottery strike early in May and the issuing of vacation checks by some industries last month.

The average monthly employment in the same factories dropped about 5 per cent from the first six months of last year. The average number in the first half of the year totaled 4,175, as compared to 4,389 in 1958's first six months.

The summary showed employment continued to climb in June, reaching an average of 4,252, a gain of 12 per cent over May's 3,793.

Inbound and outbound railroad carloadings showed almost identical increases of 39 per cent for the first half of this year against the first six months of 1958.

Inbound carloadings climbed from 1,369 in 1958 to 1,911 this year while the outbound carloadings jumped from 1,297 a year ago to 1,805 for a comparable period this year.

JUNE'S 359 inbound carloadings reflected an increase of 32.5 per cent over May's 271. There was no change in outbound carloadings with 290 reported in each month.

The number of towboats passing up and down the Ohio River climbed 20 per cent from 1,901 a year ago to 2,292 for the period ending June 30. June's traffic total of 614 boats showed an increase of 37 per cent over the 447 in May.

The total river tonnage for the first half reached 9,355,005 as against 7,459,250 in 1958, a gain of 25 per cent, but the tonnage for June dropped 2 per cent from May's 1,780,000 to 1,740,900.

NEW CAR sales in the county climbed 32 per cent to 1,742 from 1,315 in 1958. A 35 per cent gain was shown in June's sales of 368 passenger cars, as compared to 271 in May.

Used car sales climbed more than 15 per cent from 885 in May to 1,025 in June. It brings the total for the first six months of 1959 to 5,536 but no figures are available for the first half of 1958.

Parking meter receipts declined from $30,295 a year ago to $27,763 for the first half of this year, a drop of 8 per cent. The receipts for June dropped 11 per cent, from $4,820 in May to $4,264.

The average number of relief cases dropped 19 per cent from 1958 with 108 cases against 87 in the first half of this year. An increase of slightly more than 2 per cent was shown in June, with 77 cases against May's 75.

Waitress Kills College Coach

CANTON, N.Y. (AP)—"He didn't want me around anymore," a waitress told police who said Friday night she had confessed the slaying of a handsome golf pro and college coach.

State Police said Theresa Defrancesco, 23, of Rochester, had signed a statement that she shot Richard Smith, 27, early Friday morning as they drove across the St. Lawrence University campus.

He was golf coach for the northern New York university and pro at a nearby country club. She is a waitress with a record of shoplifting.

It was not clear how they met but police believe they became acquainted in Miami last winter. Smith returned north. "I sent him money from time to time," Miss Defrancesco said but refused to estimate how much.

Early Friday morning, she went to the golf course clubhouse, where Smith lived. She waited for him to return from a date. He appeared at 2 a.m.

They talked for some time and also argued but he agreed to drive her back to her hotel. The argument continued during the drive down a campus road.

She took a .22 caliber revolver from her purse and fired. The bullet struck him in the arm.

He said "oh" and slammed on the brakes. The car skidded to a halt. She fired twice more and fled. Smith was lying on the front seat of his car.

Police apprehended her in a cab about 25 miles from Watertown.

She was returned to Canton and charged with first-degree murder. Her case was postponed to Wednesday when she asked for time to obtain a lawyer.

Held Government Posts

Publisher Eugene Meyer Of Washington Dies At 83

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eugene Meyer, who took over a bankrupt newspaper and built it into one of the nation's finest, is dead at 83.

Meyer bought the Washington Post for $825,000 in 1933 at a time when many men would be thinking of retiring. At 57, he had behind him a successful career as a banker and long service in important government posts under every president since Woodrow Wilson.

The Post was in receivership. It was in the depth of the depression. Circulation was down to 50,000.

Meyer was a Republican. But he announced in a front page statement that the Post would be fair and unbiased in its news columns and that its editorial page would be strictly independent.

Under his direction the Post slowly gained back readers and influence. By 1954 circulation was near 200,000. Then the Post bought the Times Herald, Washington's other morning newspaper. It now has a daily circulation of 393,000 and a Sunday circulation of more than 446,000.

Meyer died Friday at George Washington University hospital of cancer and a heart ailment.

Meyer was born in Los Angeles, the son of an immigrant from Alsace, France.

He followed his father into a banking career with the firm of Lazard Freres. In 1901 he formed his own banking firm, Eugene Meyer Jr. & Co.

During World War I he came to Washington and served with the Council of National Defense and the War Industries Board.

Later he was with the War Finance Corp., the Federal Farm Loan Board, was the first chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corp., and was a governor of the Federal Reserve Board.

Handprint Leads To Man's Arrest In 1957 Murder

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Because of a smudged handprint in a dead woman's apartment, a slightly built carpenter is in jail, accused of the 1957 rape murder of nurse Majorie Hipperson.

Police had compiled a case file two feet thick, questioned hundreds of suspects and checked 187,000 hand prints in two years.

Friday they announced the 187,001st print they checked matched the one on Miss Hipperson's wall. It belonged to Darryl Kemp, 23, of Canoga Park, already in jail on an assault charge. Kemp was charged with the Hipperson slaying.

Married and described by his wife as a good provider, Kemp denied knowledge of the slaying. Police plan to question him about several other sex murders in the area.

Miss Hipperson, 28, was killed 13 days before she was to have been married. An assailant bound her hands with a nylon stocking and garroted her with another, then raped her.

Handprint Leads To Man's Arrest In 1957 Murder

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Because of a smudged handprint in a dead woman's apartment, a slightly built carpenter is in jail, accused of the 1957 rape murder of nurse Majorie Hipperson.

Police had compiled a case file two feet thick, questioned hundreds of suspects and checked 187,000 hand prints in two years.

Friday they announced the 187,001st print they checked matched the one on Miss Hipperson's wall. It belonged to Darryl Kemp, 23, of Canoga Park, already in jail on an assault charge. Kemp was charged with the Hipperson slaying.

Married and described by his wife as a good provider, Kemp denied knowledge of the slaying. Police plan to question him about several other sex murders in the area.

Miss Hipperson, 28, was killed 13 days before she was to have been married. An assailant bound her hands with a nylon stocking and garroted her with another, then raped her.

Crowd Waited Monday For Bridge Discussion

SHIPPINGPORT — All interested residents of Beaver County have been invited to a mass meeting Monday night at 8 in the Community Building to discuss obtaining priority for construction of a new Ohio River bridge to link Shippingport and the Midland area, Council President James Russell said today.

The meeting was called by the South Beaver County Civic Association, which a week ago called upon county commissioners to give priority to the Shippingport span over a proposed bridge at Vanport that would be a link in the Penn-Lincoln Park Way extension.

Shippingport and Georgetown Councils enacted resolutions Monday backing the civic group's position.

National Steel Contracts Let

The Weirton Steel Co. plant at Weirton is slated for new improvements and additional facilities, according to William P. Hill, vice president of engineering for the National Steel Corp., who has announced award of 12 more contracts in a current $300 million expansion program.

National Steel's expansion program, first announced in February, is scheduled for completion over the next three years and will include the installation of a 650-ton per day oxygen plant and improvements and additions to tin plate and cold rolled sheet facilities at Weirton.

The new contract awards cover buildings and facilities at Great Lakes Steel Corp. at Detroit and an entirely new steel finishing plant to be constructed on Lake Michigan near Chicago for Midwest Steel Corp. of Portage, Ind.

Whitehead and Kales Co. of Detroit won the contract for erection of approximately 15,000 tons of structural steel for buildings to house Great Lakes' new 80-inch continuous hot strip mill and auxiliary equipment.

Bethlehem Steel Corp. will erect approximately 300,000 tons of steel for various buildings to house production facilities for Midwest's hot and cold rolled sheets and strip, galvanized steel and tin plate.

Mesta Machine Co. will provide a five-stand tandem cold reduction mill and a two-stand temper mill for the Midwest plant. The five-stand mill will reduce hot rolled strip steel to gauges suitable for galvanizing and tin plating. The two-stand mill will impart the required temper to steel coils following the annealing process.

The Westinghouse Electric Corp. and Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. will provide electrical equipment for the two mills and Wean Engineering Co. will install an 80-inch raw coil pickle line, a Halogen process electrolytic tin plating line, and an 80-inch hot process line which will combine a two-high temper pass mill, coiling and shearing facilities.

The Aetna-Standard Engineering Co. will provide a 48-inch continuous galvanizing line, a 45-inch continuous annealing line, and a 48-inch cold cutup line which will include facilities for coiling, piling and packaging and a coil preparation line for processing steel coils prior to tin plating.

Escaping Gas Ignites And Burns Area Man

A Smiths Ferry area man was treated at City Hospital Friday at 4:40 p. m. for burns of the face and hands suffered when escaping gas was ignited by a broken electric light bulb after he disconnected a gas-fired hot water tank.

Paul Rice, 65, of Salem Church Rd. in Ohio Township, was burned while removing the water tank from the basement of a small cottage near his home, John Dawson, Ohio Township fire chief, said.

Gas which escaped after the tank was disconnected apparently ignited when the light bulb was broken, Dawson said. The only damage to the house was scorched joists in the basement, he said. About 12 volunteer firemen answered the call.

Artificial Respiration Used To Save Girl, 6

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two patrolmen said today they had to use artificial respiration twice on a 6-year-old girl who had been beaten with a pop bottle by her mother.

Brenda Grayson is in fair condition at Mt. Sinai Hospital. Officers said her mother, Mrs. Lucille Grayson, 23, beat the girl Friday night because she refused to go to bed. The mother formerly was a patient at Cleveland Psychiatric Hospital.

Patrolmen George Ballard and Lloyd Scott went to the Grayson home after a neighbor reported the beating. They said the girl twice stopped breathing.

The mother was jailed.

Cleveland Golfer Arrested As Link In Pen-Pal Chain

CLEVELAND (AP) — Alex Solanics, 30-year-old public links golfer, has been accused of being a link in a coast-to-coast pornographic pen-pal chain.

He was arrested in nearby Willowick Friday with a suitcase full of what police described as obscene pictures and letters. Postal Inspector John J. Basch said Solanics would be arraigned Monday before U. S. Commissioner Herbert A. Horn and charged with using the mails in the transmission and receipt of obscene and pornographic literature.

According to Willowick police, Solanics apparently was trying to keep the collection from falling into the hands of postal authorities. Police said he had just learned postal inspectors came to his home in suburban Euclid Wednesday while he was in Denver competing in the National Public Links golf tournament.

Third Of Six Issues Settled For Glass Firm

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The third of six issues submitted has been settled by an arbitration commission for the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. and United Glass and Ceramic Workers.

The decision, made Friday, provides new language in the labor contract between the two sides with respect to speeds of operation and restrictions on production.

One of the plants affected in the talks is at Mount Vernon, Ohio.

The new procedure provides that the company give the union seven days notice on an increase in production speed.

If agreement cannot be reached in that period, the company may increase speed for three weeks while further talks are made. If no agreement is then reached, the operation reverts to the old speed and the problem is submitted to an arbitration group.

Lisbon Council Passes Bill For Street Project

LISBON—Village Council, meeting in special session Friday night, gave final passage to an ordinance advertisement for bids for surface treatment of streets.

The project will cover 3 to 5 miles, depending upon contractors' bids and the amount of money available for the work. Lacking enough votes for immediate passage, Council gave the legislation first reading Monday night and second reading Tusday night.

A special session set to enact the bill Wednesday night was called off for lack of a quorum. Favorable votes were cast last night by Councilmen Robert Kelm, E. G. Heilbronner, Richard Bloor and John Blocksom.

Council expects to open bids Aug. 10.

Actress Gets Suspended Sentence For Perjury

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A former friend of Mickey Cohen, red-haired actress Liz Renay, was given a suspended three-year sentence on a perjury charge Friday.

Miss Renay admitted lying to a federal grand jury about a $5,500 loan she allegedly made to Cohen. The jury was probing the ex-gambler's financial dealings.

She pleaded guilty to one of five counts just before the case went to trial Wednesday. The other four counts were dismissed. She corrected her earlier testimony in another session with the grand jury Wednesday.

GM Lays Off 250

CLEVELAND (AP) — General Motors Corp. reports 250 men have been laid off at its transmission plant in suburban Parma because of the impending changeover in production for new automobile models. Sidney H. Smith, plant manager, said larger layoffs will come next month when production is stopped for annual week-long inventory. The plant then will swing into 1960 parts production.

THE JERRY— Average construction cost $13,100

Folks tell us that the "Jerry" in 40'x27' offers every modern living need. See what one family made of its "Jerry"—the double garage sure gives it class. They enter from the car into the kitchen or to the basement. The 13'x4" by 11'4" kitchen is, of course, handy to the large Living and Dining area. There's a big picture window in the Living Room. All the other windows are shoulder high to provide large wall space in every room for arranging furniture in many ways. The three bedrooms are close to the bath with no excess space used in large halls. The wide overhanging hip roof just belongs to the "Jerry"—makes it look larger than it is. There are several modifications of the "Jerry". The one pictured here has a 3'x16' front extension on the living room, or you can have a "Jerry" without a basement, with utility room. Of course, there's a wide choice of external finishing materials.

The Weirton Steel Co. plant at Weirton is slated for new improvements and additional facilities, according to William P. Hill, vice president of engineering for the National Steel Corp., who has announced award of 12 more contracts in a current $300 million expansion program.

National Steel's expansion program, first announced in February, is scheduled for completion over the next three years and will include the installation of a 650-ton per day oxygen plant and improvements and additions to tin plate and cold rolled sheet facilities at Weirton.

The new contract awards cover buildings and facilities at Great Lakes Steel Corp. at Detroit and an entirely new steel finishing plant to be constructed on Lake Michigan near Chicago for Midwest Steel Corp. of Portage, Ind.

Whitehead and Kales Co. of Detroit won the contract for erection of approximately 15,000 tons of structural steel for buildings to house Great Lakes' new 80-inch continuous hot strip mill and auxiliary equipment.

Bethlehem Steel Corp. will erect approximately 300,000 tons of steel for various buildings to house production facilities for Midwest's hot and cold rolled sheets and strip, galvanized steel and tin plate.

Mesta Machine Co. will provide a five-stand tandem cold reduction mill and a two-stand temper mill for the Midwest plant. The five-stand mill will reduce hot rolled strip steel to gauges suitable for galvanizing and tin plating. The two-stand mill will impart the required temper to steel coils following the annealing process.

The Westinghouse Electric Corp. and Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. will provide electrical equipment for the two mills and Wean Engineering Co. will install an 80-inch raw coil pickle line, a Halogen process electrolytic tin plating line, and an 80-inch hot process line which will combine a two-high temper pass mill, coiling and shearing facilities.

The Aetna-Standard Engineering Co. will provide a 48-inch continuous galvanizing line, a 45-inch continuous annealing line, and a 48-inch cold cutup line which will include facilities for coiling, piling and packaging and a coil preparation line for processing steel coils prior to tin plating.

Escaping Gas Ignites And Burns Area Man

A Smiths Ferry area man was treated at City Hospital Friday at 4:40 p. m. for burns of the face and hands suffered when escaping gas was ignited by a broken electric light bulb after he disconnected a gas-fired hot water tank.

Paul Rice, 65, of Salem Church Rd. in Ohio Township, was burned while removing the water tank from the basement of a small cottage near his home, John Dawson, Ohio Township fire chief, said.

Gas which escaped after the tank was disconnected apparently ignited when the light bulb was broken, Dawson said. The only damage to the house was scorched joists in the basement, he said. About 12 volunteer firemen answered the call.

Artificial Respiration Used To Save Girl, 6

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two patrolmen said today they had to use artificial respiration twice on a 6-year-old girl who had been beaten with a pop bottle by her mother.

Brenda Grayson is in fair condition at Mt. Sinai Hospital. Officers said her mother, Mrs. Lucille Grayson, 23, beat the girl Friday night because she refused to go to bed. The mother formerly was a patient at Cleveland Psychiatric Hospital.

Patrolmen George Ballard and Lloyd Scott went to the Grayson home after a neighbor reported the beating. They said the girl twice stopped breathing.

The mother was jailed.

Cleveland Golfer Arrested As Link In Pen-Pal Chain

CLEVELAND (AP) — Alex Solanics, 30-year-old public links golfer, has been accused of being a link in a coast-to-coast pornographic pen-pal chain.

He was arrested in nearby Willowick Friday with a suitcase full of what police described as obscene pictures and letters. Postal Inspector John J. Basch said Solanics would be arraigned Monday before U. S. Commissioner Herbert A. Horn and charged with using the mails in the transmission and receipt of obscene and pornographic literature.

According to Willowick police, Solanics apparently was trying to keep the collection from falling into the hands of postal authorities. Police said he had just learned postal inspectors came to his home in suburban Euclid Wednesday while he was in Denver competing in the National Public Links golf tournament.

Third Of Six Issues Settled For Glass Firm

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The third of six issues submitted has been settled by an arbitration commission for the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. and United Glass and Ceramic Workers.

The decision, made Friday, provides new language in the labor contract between the two sides with respect to speeds of operation and restrictions on production.

One of the plants affected in the talks is at Mount Vernon, Ohio.

The new procedure provides that the company give the union seven days notice on an increase in production speed.

If agreement cannot be reached in that period, the company may increase speed for three weeks while further talks are made. If no agreement is then reached, the operation reverts to the old speed and the problem is submitted to an arbitration group.

Lisbon Council Passes Bill For Street Project

LISBON—Village Council, meeting in special session Friday night, gave final passage to an ordinance advertisement for bids for surface treatment of streets.

The project will cover 3 to 5 miles, depending upon contractors' bids and the amount of money available for the work. Lacking enough votes for immediate passage, Council gave the legislation first reading Monday night and second reading Tusday night.

A special session set to enact the bill Wednesday night was called off for lack of a quorum. Favorable votes were cast last night by Councilmen Robert Kelm, E. G. Heilbronner, Richard Bloor and John Blocksom.

Council expects to open bids Aug. 10.

Actress Gets Suspended Sentence For Perjury

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A former friend of Mickey Cohen, red-haired actress Liz Renay, was given a suspended three-year sentence on a perjury charge Friday.

Miss Renay admitted lying to a federal grand jury about a $5,500 loan she allegedly made to Cohen. The jury was probing the ex-gambler's financial dealings.

She pleaded guilty to one of five counts just before the case went to trial Wednesday. The other four counts were dismissed. She corrected her earlier testimony in another session with the grand jury Wednesday.

GM Lays Off 250

CLEVELAND (AP) — General Motors Corp. reports 250 men have been laid off at its transmission plant in suburban Parma because of the impending changeover in production for new automobile models. Sidney H. Smith, plant manager, said larger layoffs will come next month when production is stopped for annual week-long inventory. The plant then will swing into 1960 parts production.

Govs. Hodges, Meyner In Poland For Visit

WARSAW (AP)—Govs. Luther H. Hodges of North Carolina and Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey arrived Friday for a brief visit to Poland.

They are en route home from a visit to the Soviet Union, where they toured for three weeks with seven other governors who also left Moscow Friday.

LeRoy Collins of Florida flew to London, Robert E. Smylie of Idaho to Stockholm and S.L.R. McNichols of Colorado, George Clyde of Utah and John Davis of North Dakota to Paris.

Govs. William Stratton of Illinois and Cecil Underwood of West Virginia also traveled with the party but left for the United States midway in the tour.

The governors will meet again in Washington July 31 to report to President Eisenhower on their mission to the Soviet Union.

Zanesville Wife Held In Death Of Husband

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Clifford Singer, 41, was shot to death in his home here Friday night, and today police held his wife Leola, 39, for investigation.

Police chief George Hodgson said Mrs. Singer told him that she was holding a shotgun when it discharged accidentally.

Woman, 67, Claimed While Viewing Queen

VICTORIA, B.C. (AP)—A Victoria woman dropped dead, apparently of a heart attack, Friday as she stood in 85 degree heat to see the Queen.

She was Fanny E. Scott, 67. Queen Elizabeth apparently did not see her slump to the ground.

Motorcyclist Cited

LISBON — William Endicott, 42, of 636 Ohio Ave., Midland, was cited Friday night by village police for driving a motorcycle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. He will receive a hearing today before Mayor John Todd.

THE JERRY— Average construction cost $13,100

Folks tell us that the "Jerry" in 40'x27' offers every modern living need. See what one family made of its "Jerry"—the double garage sure gives it class. They enter from the car into the kitchen or to the basement. The 13'x4" by 11'4" kitchen is, of course, handy to the large Living and Dining area. There's a big picture window in the Living Room. All the other windows are shoulder high to provide large wall space in every room for arranging furniture in many ways. The three bedrooms are close to the bath with no excess space used in large halls. The wide overhanging hip roof just belongs to the "Jerry"—makes it look larger than it is. There are several modifications of the "Jerry". The one pictured here has a 3'x16' front extension on the living room, or you can have a "Jerry" without a basement, with utility room. Of course, there's a wide choice of external finishing materials.

More Weight For The Saving Side

The case for the affirmative side of the proposition that political parties are made by issues — that politicians always follow and never lead public opinion — is being beefed up by the weight of the current evidence. The Republican party is gaining strength because public opinion is turning toward prudence and away from profligacy in public spending.

The internal tiff the Democrats have been holding between their Spendocrat faction and their party's more prudent interior core is essentially a public confession of confusion over the disappearance of the party's stock in trade. Since the '30s it has been making political capital of the Republican party's failure under the Hoover administration to realize that new problems called for new remedies.

The New Deal came forth with the new remedies. It sometimes didn't know what they were or what they might do, but it pulled them out of the air on command, just as Franklin D. Roosevelt had promised. One day it was a tree belt, the next day it was a hydroelectric project to harness the tides, the next day it was TVA, a new boondoggle, or a fresh dig at "entrenched greed." It did not really matter how the New Deal proposed to rout the depression as long as it dramatized the effort.

The issue had been handed to it ready-made by the Hoover administration's failure to do anything dramatic, and thereafter it kept the New Deal and the Fair Deal in political orbit until 1952. The people wanted action supplied with an issue even longer.

But the New Dealers and Fair Dealers now find themselves stranded high and dry by a growing opinion for prudence in public spending lest their Spendocrat doctrine wipe out all private equity and saving.

It has dawned belatedly on millions of Americans that only politicians have the privilege of spending more money than they possess and that either they will be curbed or they will wipe out the value of money.

For citizens in this frame of mind there is no longer any zing in warmed-over New Dealism or Fair Dealism, and this is why Democrats with nothing to offer but the same old line about cleaning out the U.S. Treasury because it's nothing but money and we owe it to ourselves anyway are quarreling with wiser Democrats who are saying quietly, "That's no good any more."

The prudence issue has put the Republican party on the comeback trail. Not all Republicans have become aware of their opportunity yet, but as far as that's concerned many Democrats were slow in picking up the ball the Republicans fumbled in 1932 when they failed to come out with new ideas for besting the Great Depression.

Today it's the Great Spending Binge that needs to be beaten. Once more, an opportunity — an issue — has been handed to a political party.

The Negative Side Of Castro

Speculation about where Fidel Castro is to be found in the ideological spectrum would be more fruitful if it were to be decided first where Cuba's bright young man is not to be found.

Whether he has been or is in the process of becoming a Communist is not going to be an easy conclusion to reach. Even in the United States, which has been more sensitive to Communism than Cuba has been, it still is hard to decide how many people who are called Communists actually are Communists.

But Castro has made no secret of what he isn't. He is not the kind of capitalist whose exploitation of opportunity in Cuba has left that country poverty-stricken.

Even the opponents of his regime in Cuba concede, moreover, that he is not the kind of capitalist that found it expedient to make deals with the kind of politician that Fulgencio Batista turned into after his suspicious start as a soldier-revolutionary.

Castro has explained in his presentations of his ambitions to Americans that he would like to see Cuban poverty routed by enlightened capitalism. He has shown special interest in the possibilities of industrialism, to balance ts lopsided sugar economy. Whether this identifies him as a capitalist is as indeterminate as whether expropriation identifies him as a Communist.

Insofar as his record to date reveals what he is, he is not the kind of capitalist that Batista became, nor the kind that used Batista in a way that made political unrest inevitable. Those who now take the position that if he is not this kind of capitalist he must, therefore, be a Communist are being less than realistic about Cuban politics.

The revolution that began on July 26 last year was based on dissatisfaction with Batista. To expect Fidel Castro to stand for the same things, at the risk of being classified as a Communist if he refuses, is to ask him to betray his own revolution.

Not everybody who points to Cuba as a grim example of unenlightened capitalism is a Communist. Some of them, possibly including Castro, are simply people who are not unenlightened capitalists.

It Still Would Be 2,070 Too Many

Amid burning curiosity about the way the Defense Department could get reliable figures on the matter, most of us will accept at cool face value its statement that only 2,070 enlisted men are working as servants to officers.

It would still be 2,070 too many. There is nothing about being an officer in the armed services of the United States that entitles the holder of the position to have personal servants at public expense. Neither is there anything about the services that justifies their use of either volunteers or draftees for any purpose other than the defense of the country.

This is not because the performance of personal services represents any loss of status. It is only because the involuntary performance of such services by the wearer of the U.S. uniform represents a loss of personal dignity.

This is so even if the performer of the service regards it as a privilege, which is undoubtedly the way many an officer's servant thinks of his job. But this is not Britain, where an officer is entitled to a "batman," or a "striker" under a military caste system patterned after the caste system in British society.

It is the United States, where membership in the officer class is attained by merit.

A few as 2,070 enlisted men in the personal service of officers instead of the impersonal service of their country, would still be too many. The House subcommittee whose curiosity brought forth the information has hit an exposed nerve. Militarists may see nothing wrong about the practice. But civilians can see nothing right about it.

QUIZ SHOW ADDICTS everywhere are wondering why New York Grand Jury answer to question, "Was public hornswoggled in big quiz shows?" can't get a fast answer. Bar associations favor suppressing the jury report, District Attorney Hogan asks publication and the judge asks more time to come up with the right answer. Airwave fans are left watching a legalistic program that's part mystery, part western, part pro wrestling and part rumpus room.

The court and the bar association are in one soundproof booth, with the DA and John Q. Public in another, with grand jury getting no reply to its question, "Should our verdict on fixed quizzes be released, or treated as a rejected script for the 'I Love Lucy' show?"

Bar associations uphold the judge's original opinion that when grand jury finds no evidence sufficient to incriminate anybody by name, no generalized report should be released, with public left ignorant whether it had been bamboozled or not when it watched "mental giants" grab all that dough.

The DA holds the release of a jury report is needed to bring legislation protecting TV fans from revival of "fixed" shows. This is certain: Nobody on any quiz program was ever as baffled as TV fans by current conflict involving the judge, DA, public and lawyers.

To the big question, "Are you entitled to know the truth?" the public answers, "Yes," but is told, "No. I'm sorry. But you made a good try and can come back next week and try for an extra-dizzy spell."

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

A packing-house clerk, who twice had to give up his study for the priesthood because of ill health, became one of the great benefactors of youth, Father Flanagan, founder of Boys Town, Neb.

He believed "there is no such thing as a bad boy," only a victim of family or social conditions. Thousands entrusted to his care, who became strong citizens, successful business and professional men, farmers, courageous soldiers, are testimonies to his faith in youth. On a borrowed $90 and his own salary—"Faith is a kind of capital, too," he said—he gathered homeless, abandoned, abused and misdirected boys into a rented house in Omaha in 1917 and gave them the love that had been missing in their lives. Each boy, Protestant, Catholic, Jew, was encouraged in his faith. Through prayers, sweat and gifts Boys Town grew until today it comprises 50 buildings on 1,000 acres, a home and school for youth of every race, color and creed.

Father Flanagan never ceased his fight for youth: He left a hospital bed to travel and plead for an imprisoned 12-year-old. He fought for humane reform schools. He was officially called to the Orient after the war to help solve the problem of homeless youth. Then to Austria and Berlin, where he died, still seeking to uplift the morale of youth.

On Behalf Of National Auto Safety

By James Free

Proposals to put the federal government for the first time in a decisive campaign for safer automobiles will be approved by a House subcommittee.

This is the prediction of Rep. Kenneth Roberts (K-Ala), chairman of the House subcommittee on health and safety. Rep. Roberts says that both his subcommittee and the full House Commerce Committee will:

1. Approve a bill requiring that all passenger cars bought by the federal government in the future be equipped with seatbelts and other safety devices as standard equipment.

2. Probably approve a bill calling for new minimum safety standards for all new automobiles. If the automobile industry does not agree to these standards within another year, the Bureau of Standards may be given the responsibility to enforce them. This was done in Rep. Roberts' bill two years ago requiring safety doors on new household refrigerators to prevent entrapment of children inside.

3. Probably approve a bill establishing standards for auto and truck exhaust emissions. Such a step, the subcommittee was told in hearings last week, is needed to aid "smog" control.

BY SUCH STEPS, the committee developed, fully half of the annual toll of 40,000 deaths and more than one million serious injuries from automobile accidents annually in the United States can be prevented.

The means for this 50 per cent solution to what the American Medical Association calls "the No. 1 public health problem" of our time are already at hand, the committee heard. Doctors and scientists who have been studying the problem are now convinced that the federal government should take the lead.

Automobile manufacturers disagree as to how much the federal government should do. But there are signs, through the changing attitude of the industry-dominated National Safety Council, that the industry now believes that Uncle Sam can take steps to promote public demand for safety devices on new cars.

Calling attention to these facts as developed in committee hearings, Rep. Roberts said:

"Testimony we have heard shows that, at last, unbiased experts believe that the toll from traffic accidents can be controlled, just as epidemics and plagues have been controlled.

"They agree that only the government can get the job done promptly and properly. They agree, too, that the place to start is on the automobile package, especially car interiors where most of the injuries are actually inflicted."

WHAT ARE SOME of the things that should be done?

"To begin with," Roberts said, "seatbelts should be standard equipment — not optional extras —on new cars. Research at Cornell University and elsewhere has show that the risk of injuries in auto accidents can be reduced up to 60 per cent by use of safety belts."

Car interiors — dashboard, instruments, mirrors, knobs, handles, seats, top — can be built to further reduce injury to passengers involved in serious crashes, according to Roberts.

"One of the most dramatic new developments," continued Roberts, "is the perfection of hydraulic bumpers that can reduce the impact forces on present cars by one half. Prof. James J. Ryan of the University of Minnesota Institute of Technology told us that 10 years of testing have produced hydraulic bumpers and other safety features that 'would prevent injury to car riders upon crash at 40 miles per hour into rigid barriers or head on collisions without change in styling or increase in cost of new automobiles.' "

By way of stressing the importance of this scientific breakthrough, Roberts noted that about one half of accidents occur below 40 miles an hour.

Some experts say that safety belts and safer car "packaging" can save many motorists in crashes at turnpike speed, 60 miles an hour and over.

William I. Steiglitz, design engineer of Republic Aviation Corp., told of one jet plane crash at 175 miles an hour on takeoff. The plane cartwheeled, skidded, hit a road bank and broke up, yet the pilot, protected by a belt and a well-designed interior, escaped with nothing worse than minor burns.

"We know now," said Roberts, "that something can be done— and should be done by the Congress and by the federal government. When the public fully understands this, it will insist on action."

Court News

That summer perennial, "Where will we play?" has come up again as the few tennis fans who remain in East Liverpool reach for their rackets.

Unless you're lucky enough to have a private court, the game won't be played here. It means instead a trip to East Palestine or some other community fortunate enough to have satisfactory facilities.

Tennis courts are needed badly in East Liverpool. They're an important part of any recreational program. It's too late this season to accomplish much in a material way, but it's not too late to begin thinking about an early start on a program for 1960.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Keith McCutcheon, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. D. McCutcheon of Thompson Ave., left for New York preparatory to sailing to the World Scout Jamboree at Birkenhead, England.

Motorists were warned of the existence of a speed trap in New Waterford.

A new traffic regulation set up four lanes of traffic through the Diamond.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Free Methodists concluded 10-day services at the Anderson Blvd. grounds with burning of a $3,000 mortgage.

The Rev. C. F. Kenneweg and nine others from the Wellsville United Presbyterian Church attended the annual young people's conference at New Concord.

William L. Prescott of East Liverpool was elected president of the newly-formed Ohio Valley Club Benefit Association of the Junior United American Mechanics.

TEN YEARS AGO — Four representatives of the Fraternal Order Police Lodge attended the state convention at Cincinnati.

Wellsville Masonic Lodge 180 observed its 100th anniversary with a three-day program.

Salineville's Homecoming got under way with a parade, pet show and races with homemade coaster cars.

Uranium, the valuable metal of today which, as the source of atomic energy, has completely changed man's way of life, was used only about fifteen years ago for such prosaic things as coloring false teeth, pottery and glassware.

On Man's Side

Take care in stepping on bugs. The life you save may help your own.

Many insects are on man's side in the struggle for existence. This is fortunate, the National Geographic Society says, for perhaps eight of every 10 living creatures are insects. If more than a fraction were pests, multiplying unchecked, man could not survive long.

Beneficial insects prey upon harmful species; serve as food for numerous birds, fish, and mamals; pollinate at least 50 useful crop plants; destroy weeds; produce silk, honey, wax, shellac, and dye; act as scavengers, and improve the condition of the soil by aeration and fertilization.

It is true that insects, particularly beetles, compete with man for food. About two-fifths of known insects are beetles and nearly every organic substance that man requires is of great interest to some beetle.

Not all beetles are bad, however. The lady beetle or ladybug devours incredible quantities of aphids, scale insects and other plant-feeding species.

In the United States and Hawaii, the Australian vedalia, a species of lady beetle, has done valiant battle against the cottony-cushion scales that feed on citrus trees. The carrion, darkling, and dung beetles help keep the earth sanitary and productive by disposing of waste materials.

Other insects of economic value include the dragonfly, the damsel fly, syrphid fly, ground beetle, and aphis lion.

Historian Khrushchev

By David Lawrence

Premier Strays From Facts On Poland

Nikita Khrushchev has again undertaken to rewrite history. Sensitive to the charge that Stalin and the Communist party, by an alliance with Hitler in 1939, made World War II possible, the Soviet Premier now brazenly tells the people of Poland that the Soviets did all this "just to buy time."

David Lawrence

Millions of Russians and Poles lost their lives because Stalin chose to make Hitler his ally and thus, by protecting the Eastern Front for the Nazis, gave them a free hand on the Western Front against France and Britain in the first years of World War II.

But Khrushchev now says he was present when Stalin committed his act of perfidy in making an alliance with Hitler and that this action was fully justified. One wonders how the Soviet Premier dares to say this today to the very people of Poland who, as a consequence thereof, lost their independence.

JUST WHY Khrushchev brought up the Soviet-Nazi alliance at this time isn't clear but it seems probable that he is smarting under the charges made earlier this year by the United States government in an "official analysis" of the Nov. 27, 1958, note from the Soviets about Berlin.

The Soviets had alleged that, prior to World War II, they had "displayed constant willingness to establish cooperation with the other powers with the object of resisting Hitlerite aggression," and that "if the Western powers had not been shortsighted in their hopes of turning Hitler eastward and cooperated with the U.S.S.R., millions of lives would have been saved."

The Department of State, in answering this fantastic distortion of the facts of history, said:

"From 1930 to 1933 the Soviet Union through its international Communist arm, the Comintern, directed the German Communist party to collaborate with the Nazis and other extremists in undermining the German Weimar Republic. It helped sabotage democratic parties and institutions and promoted lawlessness and disorder. This aided Hitler's rise to absolute power. . . .

"The U.S.S.R. turned aside from negotiations with the United Kingdom and France in August 1939 and concluded the Molotov-Ribbentrop agreements which provided the necessary guaranties for coordinated Nazi-Soviet aggression in Eastern Europe and resulted in World War II.

"In spite of warnings from the Western powers of impending German attack, the Soviet government aided Nazi Germany until Hitler marched against it in (June) 1941.

"In April 1941, the U.S.S.R. signed a neutrality pact with the Japanese ally of Hitler, thereby clearing the way for the Pearl Harbor attack on the United States on Dec. 7, 1941."

Thus it is clearly demonstrated that the Stalin action caused many millions of allied citizens to become casualties in the war. Notwithstanding Stalin's behavior, the United States promptly sent a vast amount of war materials to aid the Soviet armies when Hitler did attack Russia.

IN VIEW OF THIS action, there has been no more flagrant example of ingratitude in world history. For, ever since 1945, the Soviet government has turned on its own Western allies who saved the Soviet people from the Nazis. Today, however, war is being threatened by the Soviets against the West because it does not accept the demands of Communist imperialism.

While Nikita Khrushchev is rewriting history during his trip to Poland, it may not be amiss to remind him and the Polish people of these exultant words that Molotov — Stalin's mouthpiece — uttered on Oct. 31, 1939:

"However, one swift blow to Poland, first by the German and then by the Red Army and nothing was left of this ugly offspring of the Versailles Treaty which had existed by oppressing non-Polish nationalities."

Foreign Minister Molotov went on to say that "Germany is in the position of a state that is striving for the earliest termination of the war and for peace, while Britain and France, which but yesterday were declaiming against aggression, are in favor of continuing the war."

GREAT BRITAIN and France did go to war to uphold their agreement to guarantee the integrity of Poland. Likewise, when Stalin was warned of the Hitler game, he ignored the warnings of Britain and the United States. Here's what the American document of last January says on this point:

"In March, 1941, the United States on two occasions warned the U.S.S.R. that it had received authentic information that Nazi Germany planned to attack the Soviet Union and Prime Minister Churchill warned Stalin to the same effect in late April. But the U.S.S.R. had just shown its continued solidarity with Hitler by signing, on April 13, 1941, a neutrality pact with the Japanese partner of the Berlin - Rome - Tokyo Axis, thus clearing the way for Pearl Harbor."

What sort of "time" was Stalin buying between September, 1939, and June, 1941?

He himself never withdrew from the pact with the Nazis. He was forced to abandon it solely because Hitler decided to attack Soviet Russia after the Nazis had conquered France and were in military control of the European continent.

The people of Poland at least ought to be given the facts over the radio while "czar" Nikita is touring their land.

Positive Prejudice

By Truman Twill

Whenever I get tired of thinking about prejudices against people, things and ideas, I can get almost as worried thinking about prejudices for people, things and ideas.

Positive prejudices can do just as much harm as the negative ones that people complain about. They can do more harm, because some are subtler and slicker and harder to detect.

I am worried about the positive prejudice that makes it impossible for some persons to vote against candidates who profess a certain religious faith, or who proclaim memberships in certain fraternal organizations.

I am referring to the habit of standing up for members of occupational groups, labor unions military organizations, with no regard for any circumstance other than that of membership.

I am complaining about the idea that persons who were born in certain sections of the country, such as Texas, the Deep South, New England, or the Middle West should be given the automatic support of others born in the same place, or who have developed a prejudice for all persons born in these places.

I am registering a squawk against pulling the old buddy-buddy act based on attendance at the same college, or membership in the same fraternity, or the same club. Loyalty to friends is one thing, but loyalty to people who merely happen to have gone to school at the same place is something else.

I am putting up a bleat against prejudice for those in the same social and economic groups, such as prejudice shown by laboring men for laboring men, by professional men for professional men etc., because this is contrary to the all-American rule that people should be judged for who they are, not for what they do for a living.

I am making a beef against the racial origin prejudice for people, things and ideas, because this has done great injury to representative democracy, especially in cities and states where politicians exploit nationality voting.

I applaud all projects to eliminate negative prejudice, because its net effect is to subtract a percentage of the potentiality of a free society.

It always has seemed absurd to me that people and their thoughts should be handicapped by blind resistance because of some association or identity with no bearing on what they might be able to contribute to the general welfare.

But it is just as absurd that people should be accepted for no better reason than that they were born in a certain place, speak a certain language, belong to a particular church, or are associated with this or that organization.

That is prejudice, too — positive prejudice, the kind that warps minds for, instead of against.

It is as harmful in the long run as the other kind, and I reserve the right to resent it whenever I run across it. And that goes double for people who try to tell me I must get rid of my negative prejudices so they can have a shoo-in with their positive ones.

I suspect they are trying to con me into dropping my guard so they can bop me a good one in the kisser.

More Weight For The Saving Side

The case for the affirmative side of the proposition that political parties are made by issues — that politicians always follow and never lead public opinion — is being beefed up by the weight of the current evidence. The Republican party is gaining strength because public opinion is turning toward prudence and away from profligacy in public spending.

The internal tiff the Democrats have been holding between their Spendocrat faction and their party's more prudent interior core is essentially a public confession of confusion over the disappearance of the party's stock in trade. Since the '30s it has been making political capital of the Republican party's failure under the Hoover administration to realize that new problems called for new remedies.

The New Deal came forth with the new remedies. It sometimes didn't know what they were or what they might do, but it pulled them out of the air on command, just as Franklin D. Roosevelt had promised. One day it was a tree belt, the next day it was a hydroelectric project to harness the tides, the next day it was TVA, a new boondoggle, or a fresh dig at "entrenched greed." It did not really matter how the New Deal proposed to rout the depression as long as it dramatized the effort.

The issue had been handed to it ready-made by the Hoover administration's failure to do anything dramatic, and thereafter it kept the New Deal and the Fair Deal in political orbit until 1952. The people wanted action supplied with an issue even longer.

But the New Dealers and Fair Dealers now find themselves stranded high and dry by a growing opinion for prudence in public spending lest their Spendocrat doctrine wipe out all private equity and saving.

It has dawned belatedly on millions of Americans that only politicians have the privilege of spending more money than they possess and that either they will be curbed or they will wipe out the value of money.

For citizens in this frame of mind there is no longer any zing in warmed-over New Dealism or Fair Dealism, and this is why Democrats with nothing to offer but the same old line about cleaning out the U.S. Treasury because it's nothing but money and we owe it to ourselves anyway are quarreling with wiser Democrats who are saying quietly, "That's no good any more."

The prudence issue has put the Republican party on the comeback trail. Not all Republicans have become aware of their opportunity yet, but as far as that's concerned many Democrats were slow in picking up the ball the Republicans fumbled in 1932 when they failed to come out with new ideas for besting the Great Depression.

Today it's the Great Spending Binge that needs to be beaten. Once more, an opportunity — an issue — has been handed to a political party.

The Negative Side Of Castro

Speculation about where Fidel Castro is to be found in the ideological spectrum would be more fruitful if it were to be decided first where Cuba's bright young man is not to be found.

Whether he has been or is in the process of becoming a Communist is not going to be an easy conclusion to reach. Even in the United States, which has been more sensitive to Communism than Cuba has been, it still is hard to decide how many people who are called Communists actually are Communists.

But Castro has made no secret of what he isn't. He is not the kind of capitalist whose exploitation of opportunity in Cuba has left that country poverty-stricken.

Even the opponents of his regime in Cuba concede, moreover, that he is not the kind of capitalist that found it expedient to make deals with the kind of politician that Fulgencio Batista turned into after his suspicious start as a soldier-revolutionary.

Castro has explained in his presentations of his ambitions to Americans that he would like to see Cuban poverty routed by enlightened capitalism. He has shown special interest in the possibilities of industrialism, to balance ts lopsided sugar economy. Whether this identifies him as a capitalist is as indeterminate as whether expropriation identifies him as a Communist.

Insofar as his record to date reveals what he is, he is not the kind of capitalist that Batista became, nor the kind that used Batista in a way that made political unrest inevitable. Those who now take the position that if he is not this kind of capitalist he must, therefore, be a Communist are being less than realistic about Cuban politics.

The revolution that began on July 26 last year was based on dissatisfaction with Batista. To expect Fidel Castro to stand for the same things, at the risk of being classified as a Communist if he refuses, is to ask him to betray his own revolution.

Not everybody who points to Cuba as a grim example of unenlightened capitalism is a Communist. Some of them, possibly including Castro, are simply people who are not unenlightened capitalists.

It Still Would Be 2,070 Too Many

Amid burning curiosity about the way the Defense Department could get reliable figures on the matter, most of us will accept at cool face value its statement that only 2,070 enlisted men are working as servants to officers.

It would still be 2,070 too many. There is nothing about being an officer in the armed services of the United States that entitles the holder of the position to have personal servants at public expense. Neither is there anything about the services that justifies their use of either volunteers or draftees for any purpose other than the defense of the country.

This is not because the performance of personal services represents any loss of status. It is only because the involuntary performance of such services by the wearer of the U.S. uniform represents a loss of personal dignity.

This is so even if the performer of the service regards it as a privilege, which is undoubtedly the way many an officer's servant thinks of his job. But this is not Britain, where an officer is entitled to a "batman," or a "striker" under a military caste system patterned after the caste system in British society.

It is the United States, where membership in the officer class is attained by merit.

A few as 2,070 enlisted men in the personal service of officers instead of the impersonal service of their country, would still be too many. The House subcommittee whose curiosity brought forth the information has hit an exposed nerve. Militarists may see nothing wrong about the practice. But civilians can see nothing right about it.

That summer perennial, "Where will we play?" has come up again as the few tennis fans who remain in East Liverpool reach for their rackets.

Unless you're lucky enough to have a private court, the game won't be played here. It means instead a trip to East Palestine or some other community fortunate enough to have satisfactory facilities.

Tennis courts are needed badly in East Liverpool. They're an important part of any recreational program. It's too late this season to accomplish much in a material way, but it's not too late to begin thinking about an early start on a program for 1960.

QUIZ SHOW ADDICTS everywhere are wondering why New York Grand Jury answer to question, "Was public hornswoggled in big quiz shows?" can't get a fast answer. Bar associations favor suppressing the jury report, District Attorney Hogan asks publication and the judge asks more time to come up with the right answer. Airwave fans are left watching a legalistic program that's part mystery, part western, part pro wrestling and part rumpus room.

The court and the bar association are in one soundproof booth, with the DA and John Q. Public in another, with grand jury getting no reply to its question, "Should our verdict on fixed quizzes be released, or treated as a rejected script for the 'I Love Lucy' show?"

Bar associations uphold the judge's original opinion that when grand jury finds no evidence sufficient to incriminate anybody by name, no generalized report should be released, with public left ignorant whether it had been bamboozled or not when it watched "mental giants" grab all that dough.

The DA holds the release of a jury report is needed to bring legislation protecting TV fans from revival of "fixed" shows. This is certain: Nobody on any quiz program was ever as baffled as TV fans by current conflict involving the judge, DA, public and lawyers.

To the big question, "Are you entitled to know the truth?" the public answers, "Yes," but is told, "No. I'm sorry. But you made a good try and can come back next week and try for an extra-dizzy spell."

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

A packing-house clerk, who twice had to give up his study for the priesthood because of ill health, became one of the great benefactors of youth, Father Flanagan, founder of Boys Town, Neb.

He believed "there is no such thing as a bad boy," only a victim of family or social conditions. Thousands entrusted to his care, who became strong citizens, successful business and professional men, farmers, courageous soldiers, are testimonies to his faith in youth. On a borrowed $90 and his own salary—"Faith is a kind of capital, too," he said—he gathered homeless, abandoned, abused and misdirected boys into a rented house in Omaha in 1917 and gave them the love that had been missing in their lives. Each boy, Protestant, Catholic, Jew, was encouraged in his faith. Through prayers, sweat and gifts Boys Town grew until today it comprises 50 buildings on 1,000 acres, a home and school for youth of every race, color and creed.

Father Flanagan never ceased his fight for youth: He left a hospital bed to travel and plead for an imprisoned 12-year-old. He fought for humane reform schools. He was officially called to the Orient after the war to help solve the problem of homeless youth. Then to Austria and Berlin, where he died, still seeking to uplift the morale of youth.

On Behalf Of National Auto Safety

By James Free

Proposals to put the federal government for the first time in a decisive campaign for safer automobiles will be approved by a House subcommittee.

This is the prediction of Rep. Kenneth Roberts (K-Ala), chairman of the House subcommittee on health and safety. Rep. Roberts says that both his subcommittee and the full House Commerce Committee will:

1. Approve a bill requiring that all passenger cars bought by the federal government in the future be equipped with seatbelts and other safety devices as standard equipment.

2. Probably approve a bill calling for new minimum safety standards for all new automobiles. If the automobile industry does not agree to these standards within another year, the Bureau of Standards may be given the responsibility to enforce them. This was done in Rep. Roberts' bill two years ago requiring safety doors on new household refrigerators to prevent entrapment of children inside.

3. Probably approve a bill establishing standards for auto and truck exhaust emissions. Such a step, the subcommittee was told in hearings last week, is needed to aid "smog" control.

BY SUCH STEPS, the committee developed, fully half of the annual toll of 40,000 deaths and more than one million serious injuries from automobile accidents annually in the United States can be prevented.

The means for this 50 per cent solution to what the American Medical Association calls "the No. 1 public health problem" of our time are already at hand, the committee heard. Doctors and scientists who have been studying the problem are now convinced that the federal government should take the lead.

Automobile manufacturers disagree as to how much the federal government should do. But there are signs, through the changing attitude of the industry-dominated National Safety Council, that the industry now believes that Uncle Sam can take steps to promote public demand for safety devices on new cars.

Calling attention to these facts as developed in committee hearings, Rep. Roberts said:

"Testimony we have heard shows that, at last, unbiased experts believe that the toll from traffic accidents can be controlled, just as epidemics and plagues have been controlled.

"They agree that only the government can get the job done promptly and properly. They agree, too, that the place to start is on the automobile package, especially car interiors where most of the injuries are actually inflicted."

WHAT ARE SOME of the things that should be done?

"To begin with," Roberts said, "seatbelts should be standard equipment — not optional extras —on new cars. Research at Cornell University and elsewhere has show that the risk of injuries in auto accidents can be reduced up to 60 per cent by use of safety belts."

Car interiors — dashboard, instruments, mirrors, knobs, handles, seats, top — can be built to further reduce injury to passengers involved in serious crashes, according to Roberts.

"One of the most dramatic new developments," continued Roberts, "is the perfection of hydraulic bumpers that can reduce the impact forces on present cars by one half. Prof. James J. Ryan of the University of Minnesota Institute of Technology told us that 10 years of testing have produced hydraulic bumpers and other safety features that 'would prevent injury to car riders upon crash at 40 miles per hour into rigid barriers or head on collisions without change in styling or increase in cost of new automobiles.' "

By way of stressing the importance of this scientific breakthrough, Roberts noted that about one half of accidents occur below 40 miles an hour.

Some experts say that safety belts and safer car "packaging" can save many motorists in crashes at turnpike speed, 60 miles an hour and over.

William I. Steiglitz, design engineer of Republic Aviation Corp., told of one jet plane crash at 175 miles an hour on takeoff. The plane cartwheeled, skidded, hit a road bank and broke up, yet the pilot, protected by a belt and a well-designed interior, escaped with nothing worse than minor burns.

"We know now," said Roberts, "that something can be done— and should be done by the Congress and by the federal government. When the public fully understands this, it will insist on action."

On Man's Side

Take care in stepping on bugs. The life you save may help your own.

Many insects are on man's side in the struggle for existence. This is fortunate, the National Geographic Society says, for perhaps eight of every 10 living creatures are insects. If more than a fraction were pests, multiplying unchecked, man could not survive long.

Beneficial insects prey upon harmful species; serve as food for numerous birds, fish, and mamals; pollinate at least 50 useful crop plants; destroy weeds; produce silk, honey, wax, shellac, and dye; act as scavengers, and improve the condition of the soil by aeration and fertilization.

It is true that insects, particularly beetles, compete with man for food. About two-fifths of known insects are beetles and nearly every organic substance that man requires is of great interest to some beetle.

Not all beetles are bad, however. The lady beetle or ladybug devours incredible quantities of aphids, scale insects and other plant-feeding species.

In the United States and Hawaii, the Australian vedalia, a species of lady beetle, has done valiant battle against the cottony-cushion scales that feed on citrus trees. The carrion, darkling, and dung beetles help keep the earth sanitary and productive by disposing of waste materials.

Other insects of economic value include the dragonfly, the damsel fly, syrphid fly, ground beetle, and aphis lion.

Premier Strays From Facts On Poland

Nikita Khrushchev has again undertaken to rewrite history. Sensitive to the charge that Stalin and the Communist party, by an alliance with Hitler in 1939, made World War II possible, the Soviet Premier now brazenly tells the people of Poland that the Soviets did all this "just to buy time."

David Lawrence

Millions of Russians and Poles lost their lives because Stalin chose to make Hitler his ally and thus, by protecting the Eastern Front for the Nazis, gave them a free hand on the Western Front against France and Britain in the first years of World War II.

But Khrushchev now says he was present when Stalin committed his act of perfidy in making an alliance with Hitler and that this action was fully justified. One wonders how the Soviet Premier dares to say this today to the very people of Poland who, as a consequence thereof, lost their independence.

JUST WHY Khrushchev brought up the Soviet-Nazi alliance at this time isn't clear but it seems probable that he is smarting under the charges made earlier this year by the United States government in an "official analysis" of the Nov. 27, 1958, note from the Soviets about Berlin.

The Soviets had alleged that, prior to World War II, they had "displayed constant willingness to establish cooperation with the other powers with the object of resisting Hitlerite aggression," and that "if the Western powers had not been shortsighted in their hopes of turning Hitler eastward and cooperated with the U.S.S.R., millions of lives would have been saved."

The Department of State, in answering this fantastic distortion of the facts of history, said:

"From 1930 to 1933 the Soviet Union through its international Communist arm, the Comintern, directed the German Communist party to collaborate with the Nazis and other extremists in undermining the German Weimar Republic. Speaker Cites Need To Widen Explorer Scouts' Enrollment

The need for more teen-age boys to participate in the new Explorer program launched by the Boy Scouts was emphasized by Frank Rossi, organization and extension chairman for the Cherokee District of the Columbiana Council at a meeting of the Lions Club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Although some 1,500 teen-age boys from 14 to 18 are eligible for the Explorer program in the Cherokee District, which embraces the southern half of Columbiana County and Chester and Newell in Hancock County, the program is reaching less than 5 per cent, Rossi said.

There are four Explorer posts in the district, with units in Salineville and the Glenmoor United Presbyterian, St. Aloysius Catholic and Longs Run Presbyterian Churches. But the total enrollment is less than 60 boys, he said.

There are some 5,000 boys between 8 and 18 in the district, with the Cub Scout program reaching 35 per cent of those between 8 and 11 and Boy Scouts enrolling 25 per cent of those between 11 and 14.

The Explorer program is totally new and provides for the boys to plan and work out their own specilized activities under an adult supervisor. As examples, Rossi pointed out a group of physicians could sponsor a post of boys studying medical work or a boat club could sponsor a unit with members studying various phases of boating and water rescue.

Rossi screened a film which detailed the results obtained from a teen-age survey conducted by the University of Michigan to learn the needs of teenage youths.

He was introduced by Paul Zehnder, program chairman.

James Johnston, general chairman, announced the annual picnic will be held Aug. 26 at the lower pavilion in Thompson Park. Howard Tice, first vice president, presided.

WHERE PERFECTION IS A TRADITION

Only a Memorial expresses Personal Sentiment

A grave-marker is just that . . . a mark to separate one plot of cemetery land from the others. Where only such markers are placed, all places and all records become identical, as though all lives were the same. But in cemeteries where fine memorials are erected, there are the separate stories of lives, the personal symbols of memory, the distinct and different histories of people and families and names. The cemetery lot with an expressive Memorial on it is a place of honor, a shrine of memories, a proud place . . . for all time.

Open weekdays until 5 o'clock.
Evenings and Sunday by appointment.

WHERE PERFECTION IS A TRADITION

Only a Memorial expresses Personal Sentiment

A grave-marker is just that . . . a mark to separate one plot of cemetery land from the others. Where only such markers are placed, all places and all records become identical, as though all lives were the same. But in cemeteries where fine memorials are erected, there are the separate stories of lives, the personal symbols of memory, the distinct and different histories of people and families and names. The cemetery lot with an expressive Memorial on it is a place of honor, a shrine of memories, a proud place . . . for all time.

The paratrooper has faith in his "chute." The motorist has faith in his brakes. The shopper has faith in the brand-name she buys. All of us exercise our faith a hundred times a day.

Religious faith is like its every-day cousin. It is the same implicit reliance . . . the same daring confidence.

Religious faith comes when we seek it. But there is always the leap. Man has to step from his worldly floor into the spiritual space where God reveals his power and love. He must decide to believe what he cannot prove!

Like the leap of the paratrooper, the leap of faith begins months earlier in careful training.

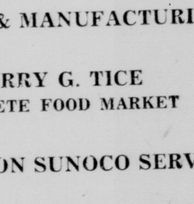

The day a family starts to attend Church regularly . . . the training begins.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

HUMANITY CALLING

by Major William Murtaugh of The Salvation Army

A Modern Salvation Lassie

We of The Salvation Army are obliged to face grim realities and the facts of life every day. The much-publicized delinquent situation rampant throughout the land is of deep concern to us, and we are doing our utmost to master whatever resources are available to us in our endeavor to cope with the menacing challenge.

It is heartening to know however that in the midst of a wicked and perverse generation there are those young people who affirm that "Christ is the Answer" to their every need, and are faithfully letting their lights shine to radiate the glory of God in their daily lives.

Today's so-called "glamour girl" of the world soon fades away, but the "Glory Girl" living for God possesses an enduring quality that is abiding.

Corps Cadet Judy Lowers of the East Liverpool Corps is a recent graduate of the local High School. She is enjoying her Christian life, finding ways and means daily to "make somebody happy today", and eventually plans to become an Officer in The Salvation Army, following four years' study at Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky. At present, Judy is attending business school and performing secretarial services in the Corps Office. She is active in the over-all program of the Corps. A service close to her heart is taking young people to sing for the patients in Convalescent Homes, and leading them in neighborhood open-air meetings to stimulate interest in Sunday School attendance.

Theme Is 'Range Riding'

Unique Attendance Drive Scheduled

A unique "Riding the Range" attendance contest, designed to appeal to western-minded youngsters, has been launched by the Bible School of the Second Church of Christ. The goal is an attendance gain of at least 20 per cent.

Pictured above in appropriate western regalia as they talk over the progress of the drive are Ernest Baxter, left, superintendent of the school, and James Smith, assistant superintendent and chairman of the campaign. The drive was launched with western-style music, while superintendents were dressed in range attire.

Pictures taken of activities on opening day will be screened Sunday night at the 7:30 service.

A large poster has been made, listing the names of all the classes and the average attendance of each class for July and August of 1958, as well as the goal set for the drive.

When a class reaches its goal, that Sunday's attendance figure is placed on the poster in red. When the class fails to reach its goal, the entry will be in black.

As an added feature, each class is represented by a miniature horse and rider and corral. Whenever the class achieves its goal the horse and rider will be taken out of the corral for that week.

The class with the greatest increase in attendance will receive permanent possession of a bronze horse trophy.

The Communion service will be Sunday at 10:45 a. m. John Eggleton, minister, will preach on "How To Hit the Nail on the Thumb."

The choir will sing "Something For Thee," with Gloria Baxter at the organ.

BIRMINGHAM (AP) — The burglar was a little late — and he won't get another chance. Police said a burglar broke into a restaurant and got away with 30 cents—only hours after it went out of business.

The paratrooper has faith in his "chute." The motorist has faith in his brakes. The shopper has faith in the brand-name she buys. All of us exercise our faith a hundred times a day.

Religious faith is like its every-day cousin. It is the same implicit reliance . . . the same daring confidence.

Religious faith comes when we seek it. But there is always the leap. Man has to step from his worldly floor into the spiritual space where God reveals his power and love. He must decide to believe what he cannot prove!

Like the leap of the paratrooper, the leap of faith begins months earlier in careful training.

The day a family starts to attend Church regularly . . . the training begins.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

HUMANITY CALLING

by Major William Murtaugh of The Salvation Army

A Modern Salvation Lassie

We of The Salvation Army are obliged to face grim realities and the facts of life every day. The much-publicized delinquent situation rampant throughout the land is of deep concern to us, and we are doing our utmost to master whatever resources are available to us in our endeavor to cope with the menacing challenge.

It is heartening to know however that in the midst of a wicked and perverse generation there are those young people who affirm that "Christ is the Answer" to their every need, and are faithfully letting their lights shine to radiate the glory of God in their daily lives.

Today's so-called "glamour girl" of the world soon fades away, but the "Glory Girl" living for God possesses an enduring quality that is abiding.

Corps Cadet Judy Lowers of the East Liverpool Corps is a recent graduate of the local High School. She is enjoying her Christian life, finding ways and means daily to "make somebody happy today", and eventually plans to become an Officer in The Salvation Army, following four years' study at Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky. At present, Judy is attending business school and performing secretarial services in the Corps Office. She is active in the over-all program of the Corps. A service close to her heart is taking young people to sing for the patients in Convalescent Homes, and leading them in neighborhood open-air meetings to stimulate interest in Sunday School attendance.

Braves Lose Fourth Straight, Fall Three Games Off Pace

Giants Top Bucs; Cubs, Phils Win

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joey Jay lost one, then Carl Willey, then Lew Burdette. Now Warren Spahn. That's how the Milwaukee Braves, favored for pitching, have lost four in a row for the first time this season and have skidded to third, three games behind in the National League race—their largest deficit in two years.

Not since July 10, 1957, have the Braves been that far off the pennant pace. Then they were second to St. Louis, finally overhauling the Cards and running off with their first title.

Friday night it was a sixth-place St. Louis, usually a soft touch for Spahn, that beat the southpaw ace with a two-out rally in the eighth inning for a 4-3 victory.

San Francisco's first-place Giants picked up their largest lead of the year by rapping Pittsburgh 4-1 while second-place Los Angeles lost 3-2 at Philadelphia.

The Chicago Cubs, fresh from a three-game sweep of the Braves made it four in a row with a 1-0 decision over Cincinnati on a six-hitter by Art Ceccarelli.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox were nitless for eight innings, but beat New York 2-0 as Early Wynn defeated Ralph Terry in a double two-hit duel. Cleveland remained within a game of Chicago with an 8-7 victory at Boston. Baltimore defeated Detroit 3-2 and Kansas City beat Washington 7-4.

San Francisco made it two straight and five out of eight since the All-Star game behind the seven-hit pitching of Sam Jones, who walked just one and struck out seven for his 13th victory. Ron Kline (7-8) was the loser.

The last place Phillies had only four hits off Roger Craig, who lost his first after winning four. Jim Owens went all the way for his fifth victory against eight defeats.

Ceccarelli, an American League castoff after losing his last seven decisions with Kansas City and Baltimore, won his second without defeat for the Cubs. The 29-year-old lefty also scored the run, coming across on a fielder's choice in the fifth against Bob Purkey (8-10).

Porter-Westfall To Vie For Ladies' Golf Crown

Miss Pam Porter, a 14-year-old golfer, will meet Mrs. E. R. Westfall in the finals for the Ladies' July Cup at the East Liverpool Country Club, Andy Petrick, club pro, announced.

The second division in the finals will pair Mrs. C. W. McCutcheon against Mrs. Don Schreckengost. The finals will be played under an 85 per cent of difference of handicaps.

The women's amateur - amateur event will be held at 1 p. m. Thursday with nine foursomes competing in the four - ball, best ball with a 70 per cent handicap event.

The foursomes and their individual handicaps include:

1—Winnie Moninger (13), Maxine Mueller (23), Beth Beatty (29) and Gin Bernstorf (35).

Wright Faces Campbell For Publinx Title

DENVER (AP) — Bill Wright, Seattle collegian, and Frank Campbell, a steady golf veteran, play 36 holes today for the championship of the National Public Links golf tournament.

Wright is the first Negro finalist in the tourney which began in 1922.

Wild off the tees but deadly accurate on the greens, Wright defeated Don Essig III of Indianapolis, the 1957 winner, 1 up in Friday's 36-hole semifinals.

Campbell, 33-year-old insurance man, took advantage of mistakes by Bill McCool, San Francisco policeman, for a 3 and 1 semifinal victory.

Defending champion Don Sikes Jr., teammate of Campbell from Jacksonville, Fla., lost in the second round of match play Wednesday over the 6,617-yard, par 71 Wellshire course.

Wright, 23, and Campbell are the last of 2,437 pay-as-you-go players who began competition for this municipal links crown. There were 150 players in the field that started here Monday.

Trice was relieved by Kolson in the fourth inning. West Kittaning clouted 10 hits but its only run was unearned. The run crossed the plate on a triple with two out in the sixth by Jim Foreman.

Levittown blasted two pitchers for five runs in the first inning in easily whipping New Castle Merchants, 12-7. Catcher Williams led the assault of the winners by tripling with two aboard in the first inning and collecting two other hits. Williams drove in four runs.

Several hundred fans were treated to a neat fielding demonstration by shortstop Danny Allyne of Levittown, a former player for Caracas, Venezuela in the Caribbean League.

The East Liverpool Pony League All-Stars will meet Canton Monday at 6:15 p. m. in the Northeastern playoff, Don Hancock, league commissioner, announced today.

The game will be played at Timken Field.

The winner then will meet the winner of the Dover-Massillon game next Friday at Dover in the Northeastern District semi-finals.

If East Liverpool loses Monday at Canton, the regular league schedule will resume Tuesday, Hancock said.

Carter Hurls And Bats Wellsville To Victory

John Carter pitched and batted Wellsville to a 20-3 rout of Highlandtown in City League softball action Friday.

Carter, in addition to mound chores, slammed a home run. The victory put Wellsville in a first place tie with American Vitrified Products for the league lead.

Boo Carter led the Wellsville assault with a triple and two singles. Rich Jackson also hit a homer for the winners.

Hescht was the losing pitcher. Louie Talbott and Clarence (Bevo) Francis hit home runs for Highlandtown.

Richards Says Three Hurlers Orioles Key

BALTIMORE (AP) — Manager Paul Richards thinks a trio of pitchers "can easily be the key" to his Baltimore Orioles sticking in the American League pennant race.

Richards says he has in mind a trio that hasn't won a game among them this season. They're Arnold Portocarrero, Billy Hoeft and rookie Jack Fisher.

Irondale City League Victim

Rambo Pitches 1-Hitter As Merchants Win, 4-0

With southpaw Norman Rambo hurling one-hit ball, East Liverpool's Merchants swept past Irondale, 4-0, in City League Baseball action Friday night at the Irondale field.

Everything went wrong for the second - place Irons who helped whip themselves with a rash of throwing and fielding errors.

Coach John Andrason's Merchant nine posted an early 2-0 lead without slamming the ball out of the infield and later added another pair of runs with the aid of a leaky Irondale infield.

Rambo was in complete control nearly the entire distance, but had to stave off an Irondale rally in the seventh inning to capture the victory.

The lone hit off the southpaw was a scratch infield single in the seventh by Irondale's John Martin, who was a pinch-hitter. Martin beat out an infield roller to third.

The game ended on a suspenseful note in the seventh, when with two runners on base, outfielder Joe Urich blasted a long drive to the center field fence. However, Urich's shot was short by a few feet of going for a homer over the fence and the catch retired the side.

Southpaw John Wilkes was charged with the defeat. He was relieved by Don Fraley, a righthander.

Pony Teams In 13-13 Tie

Darkness halted the Woodbine-Golden Star Pony League fray Friday night with the score tied at 13-13.

The game was a rather wild one, with the Woodbine nine committing a dozen errors and Golden Star being charged with four.

The two squads will meet in another tussle Wednesday night at Dopler Field to decide the winner.

Chuck Mullen blasted a home run and three singles to spark the 14-hit attack of Golden Star. Bebout chipped in with a double and single in three trips to the plate, while scoring three runs. Myers also had two hits for the dairymen.

Butch Nolan clouted a triple and two singles to pace the Woodbine assault.

Nolan and Jarvis hurled for Woodbine, while Conkel was on the mound for Golden Star.

'Great Plays,' Lopez Says In White Sox Win

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "There were more good plays than I ever saw in one game."

That was Al Lopez' tribute Friday night after his Chicago White Sox had shut out New York 2-0 with Early Wynn beating young Ralph Terry. Each pitcher allowed but two hits. Terry didn't give up any until Jim McAnany singled in the ninth. Wynn also had a no-hitter going until Terry beat out a ground ball on a disputed call at first base in the sixth

Chicago defenders turned in sensational plays back of Wynn. There was Jim Landis' long run to grab Mickey Mantle's drive in deep center in the fourth, Al Smith's tumbling catch of Enos Slaughter's fast-sinking fly in left center in the fifth.

Most important to Wynn was Earl Torgeson's play on Mantle's terrific smash in the ninth that he turned into a rally-killing double play. "I just hoped it didn't drag Torgy out into the grass," said Wynn as he sank wearily to a stool in front of his locker. It was a great night for the 39-year-old Wynn whose total of 261 victories is tops in both leagues for active pitchers.

"How about all those great plays in back of you?" Wynn was asked.

"Routine, just routine," he said with a grin. "You haven't been seeing our ball club enough. They could have been a couple of steps faster."

Calhoun Wins By Decision

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Sleepy-eyed Rory Calhoun, winner of a 10-round split decision, said today he had to chase Dick Tiger to make the fight.

Most of Friday night's crowd of 1,320 thought differently. They howled and tossed refuse into the ring after Judges Dick Fazio and Harold McGrath awarded the last three rounds to Calhoun and a 6-4 margin.

Referee Joe Palmer saw the middleweight scrap 5-3-2 for Tiger. So did The AP.

Calhoun, from White Plains, N.Y., closed fast last June 5 in New York's Madison Square Garden to earn a draw with Tiger in a fight good enough to win a quick rematch.

Friday night's effort probably sent a nationwide television and radio audience to bed early.

Calhoun, 24, and five years younger than Tiger, showed more aggressiveness toward the end. This probably impressed Fazio and McGrath.

The win boosted Calhoun's record to 40-7-2. Tiger, the British Empire middleweight champion, now is 32-9-2.

Tribe Wins, 8-7; 2 Thumbed Out

BOSTON (AP)—The Cleveland Indians snapped a three-game losing string with an 8-7 victory over Boston Friday night, putting down a three-run uprising by the Red Sox in the final inning.

The big story, though, was another of the Indians' battles with the umpires. This one was a beaut. It came in the eighth inning with Manager Joe Gordon and left fielder Minnie Minoso tossed from the game.

Minoso, incidentally, was called out on strikes, taking the last two pitches while standing outside the batter's box.

The dispute—one of the most heated in several years — started when second base umpire Jim Honochick ruled Vic Power interfered with Herb Plews while Plews fielded a grounder.

Gordon thought different. He argued loud and long, carrying his appeal to three umpires and finally to plate umpire Frank Umont. During this debate, Umont ejected Gordon.

After one pitch to Minoso, Gordon stormed back onto the field to argue another point. Umont refused to listen and ordered pitcher Leo Kiely to continue throwing. Minoso was out of the batter's box and Kiely's two pitches were called strikes. Minoso then blew his top and got a quick exit sign from Umont.

That really infuriated the fiery Cuban. He lossed his bat along the ground in the direction of Umont, who had to jump to avoid being struck. Minoso finally was forcibly restrained by his teammates.

Winning pitcher in the wild contest was Bobby Locke, the 25-year-old rookie righthander, posting his first triumph in the majors.

Locke was sailing along with a four-hitter and an 8-1 lead when the Red Sox roughed him up in the seventh for three runs. They got three more in the ninth off Jim Perry and Gary Bell, who finally put out the fire by striking out Bobby Avila with the potential tying and winning runs on first and second.

Locke aided his own cause considerably with a two-run double. The Indians scored two runs in each of the first two innings, Boston errors contributing to the scoring.

Rocky Colavito belted his 29th home run in the third inning. Power drove in two runs and scored another.

Marty Keough homered for the Red Sox, who made 10 hits to the Indians' 14.

The series continues today with Herb Score facing Frank Sullivan of Boston. By winning, the Indians kept pace with Chicago, which beat New York and retained its one-game lead in the American League chase.

Gordon Can't Protest, Minnie Won't Pay Fine

BOSTON (AP)—Cleveland may be out of first place but not the headlines. The irate Indians today featured a manager protesting a game he can't protest and an outfielder refusing to pay a fine he hasn't received.

It happened Friday night when Joe Gordon and Minnie Minoso were thrown out by plate umpire Frank Umont during Cleveland's 8-7 squeaker over Boston.

Against baseball's conduct rules, Gordon rushed from the dugout following his banishment to announce he would protest the game.

Umont said he couldn't protest in his role of outcast.

Umont said he would file a report to American League President Joe Cronin claiming he was bumped by Minoso.

"Me pay no fine," shouted the angry Cuban in the dressing room. "They fine me I write letter to president (Cronin). I no Ted Williams. I no have that kind of money. No fine. I got terrible temper but I no hit umpire. They not going to put show on road with me."

Minoso said he had refused to bat because Coach Jo-Jo White was not at third.

"Umont wouldn't listen to me," said Minnie. "I don't think he even realized that White wasn't on the field."

It was the second time this season Umont tossed Minoso out of a game.

"I no going to talk to him rest of year," fumed Minnie.

Ralph Terry, Yankee pitcher, is a student during the off-season. He majors in psychology and has two semesters to go for his degree.

Braves Lose Fourth Straight, Fall Three Games Off Pace

Giants Top Bucs; Cubs, Phils Win

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joey Jay lost one, then Carl Willey, then Lew Burdette. Now Warren Spahn. That's how the Milwaukee Braves, favored for pitching, have lost four in a row for the first time this season and have skidded to third, three games behind in the National League race—their largest deficit in two years.

Not since July 10, 1957, have the Braves been that far off the pennant pace. Then they were second to St. Louis, finally overhauling the Cards and running off with their first title.

Friday night it was a sixth-place St. Louis, usually a soft touch for Spahn, that beat the southpaw ace with a two-out rally in the eighth inning for a 4-3 victory.

San Francisco's first-place Giants picked up their largest lead of the year by rapping Pittsburgh 4-1 while second-place Los Angeles lost 3-2 at Philadelphia.

The Chicago Cubs, fresh from a three-game sweep of the Braves made it four in a row with a 1-0 decision over Cincinnati on a six-hitter by Art Ceccarelli.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox were hitless for eight innings, but beat New York 2-0 as Early Wynn defeated Ralph Terry in a double two-hit duel. Cleveland remained within a game of Chicago with an 8-7 victory at Boston. Baltimore defeated Detroit 3-2 and Kansas City beat Washington 7-4.

San Francisco made it two straight and five out of eight since the All-Star game behind the seven-hit pitching of Sam Jones, who walked just one and struck out seven for his 13th victory. Ron Kline (7-8) was the loser.

The last place Phillies had only four hits off Roger Craig, who lost his first after winning four. Jim Owens went all the way for his fifth victory against eight defeats.

Ceccarelli, an American League castoff after losing his last seven decisions with Kansas City and Baltimore, won his second without defeat for the Cubs. The 29-year-old lefty also scored the run, coming across on a fielder's choice in the fifth against Bob Purkey (8-10).

Wright Faces Campbell For Publinx Title

DENVER (AP) — Bill Wright, Seattle collegian, and Frank Campbell, a steady golf veteran, play 36 holes today for the championship of the National Public Links golf tournament.

Wright is the first Negro finalist in the tourney which began in 1922.

Wild off the tees but deadly accurate on the greens, Wright defeated Don Essig III of Indianapolis, the 1957 winner, 1 up in Friday's 36-hole semifinals.

Campbell, 33-year-old insurance man, took advantage of mistakes by Bill McCool, San Francisco policeman, for a 3 and 1 semifinal victory.

Defending champion Don Sikes Jr., teammate of Campbell from Jacksonville, Fla., lost in the second round of match play Wednesday over the 6,617-yard, par 71 Wellshire course.

Wright, 23, and Campbell are the last of 2,437 pay-as-you-go players who began competition for this municipal links crown. There were 150 players in the field that started here Monday.

Midland wrapped up the neat victory by plating six runs in the third inning, with two crossing the plate on Mat Yanosich's long triple. George Siford aided in the big inning by singling with the bases loaded.

Trice was relieved by Kolson in the fourth inning. West Kittaning clouted 10 hits but its only run was unearned. The run crossed the plate on a triple with two out in the sixth by Jim Foreman.

Levittown blasted two pitchers for five runs in the first inning in easily whipping New Castle Merchants, 12-7. Catcher Williams led the assault of the winners by tripling with two aboard in the first inning and collecting two other hits. Williams drove in four runs.

Several hundred fans were treated to a neat fielding demonstration by shortstop Danny Allyne of Levittown, a former player for Caracas, Venezuela in the Caribbean League.

Pony 'Stars' Play Canton Nine Monday

The East Liverpool Pony League All-Stars will meet Canton Monday at 6:15 p. m. in the Northeastern playoff, Don Hancock, league commissioner, announced today.

The game will be played at Timken Field.

The winner then will meet the winner of the Dover-Massillon game next Friday at Dover in the Northeastern District semi-finals.

Dick Owen is manager of the local team.

If East Liverpool loses Monday at Canton, the regular league schedule will resume Tuesday, Hancock said.

Carter Hurls And Bats Wellsville To Victory

John Carter pitched and batted Wellsville to a 20-3 rout of Highlandtown in City League softball action Friday.

Carter, in addition to mound chores, slammed a home run. The victory put Wellsville in a first place tie with American Vitrified Products for the league lead.

Boo Carter led the Wellsville assault with a triple and two singles. Rich Jackson also hit a homer for the winners.

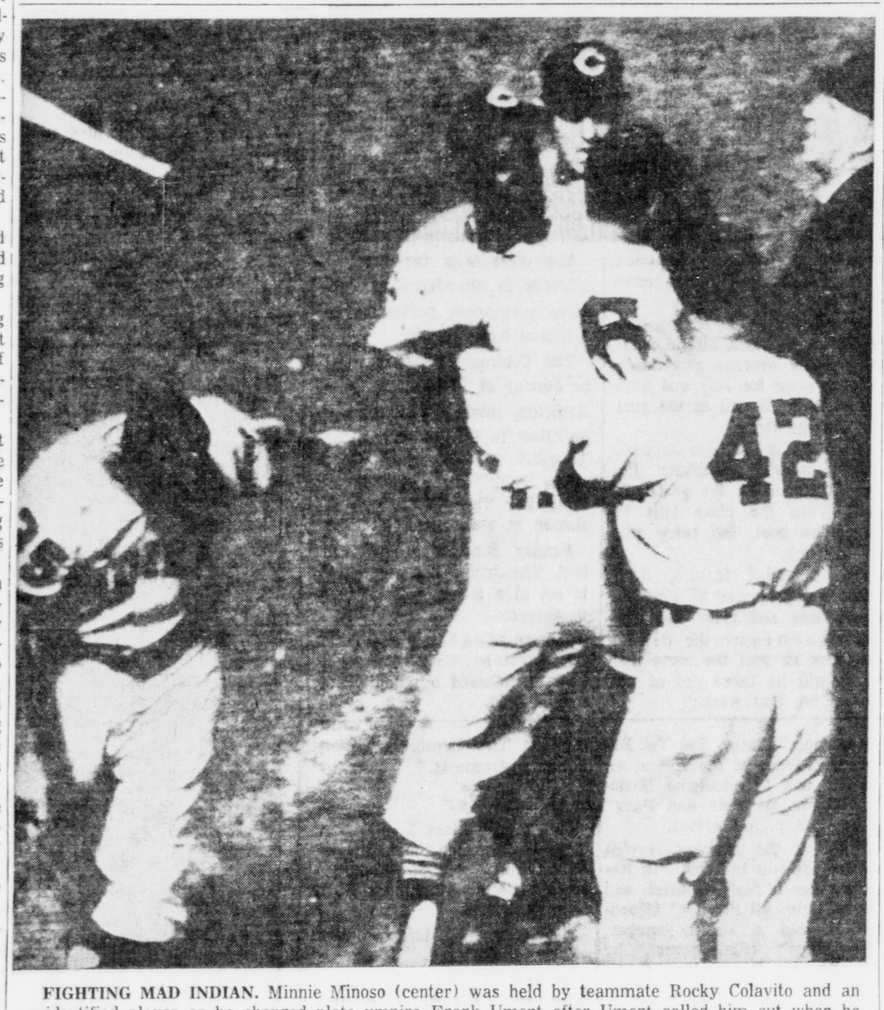

Hescht was the losing pitcher. Louie Talbott and Clarence (Bevo) Francis hit home runs for Highlandtown.

Richards Says Three Hurlers Orioles Key

BALTIMORE (AP) — Manager Paul Richards thinks a trio of pitchers "can easily be the key" to his Baltimore Orioles sticking in the American League pennant race.

Richards says he has in mind a trio that hasn't won a game among them this season. They're Arnold Portocarrero, Billy Hoeft and rookie Jack Fisher.

Rambo Pitches 1-Hitter As Merchants Win, 4-0

With southpaw Norman Rambo hurling one-hit ball, East Liverpool's Merchants swept past Irondale, 4-0, in City League Baseball action Friday night at the Irondale field.

Everything went wrong for the second - place Irons who helped whip themselves with a rash of throwing and fielding errors.

Coach John Andrason's Merchant nine posted an early 2-0 lead without slamming the ball out of the infield and later added another pair of runs with the aid of a leaky Irondale infield.

Rambo was in complete control nearly the entire distance, but had to stave off an Irondale rally in the seventh inning to capture the victory.

The lone hit off the southpaw was a scratch infield single in the seventh by Irondale's John Martin, who was a pinch-hitter. Martin beat out an infield roller to third.

The game ended on a suspenseful note in the seventh, when with two runners on base, outfielder Joe Urich blasted a long drive to the center field fence. However, Urich's shot was short by a few feet of going for a homer over the fence and the catch retired the side.

Southpaw John Wilkes was charged with the defeat. He was relieved by Don Fraley, a righthander.

Pony Teams In 13-13 Tie

Darkness halted the Woodbine-Golden Star Pony League fray Friday night with the score tied at 13-13.

The game was a rather wild one, with the Woodbine nine committing a dozen errors and Golden Star being charged with four.

The two squads will meet in another tussle Wednesday night at Dopler Field to decide the winner.

Chuck Mullen blasted a home run and three singles to spark the 14-hit attack of Golden Star. Bebout chipped in with a double and single in three trips to the plate, while scoring three runs. Myers also had two hits for the dairymen.

Butch Nolan clouted a triple and two singles to pace the Woodbine assault.

Nolan and Jarvis hurled for Woodbine, while Conkel was on the mound for Golden Star.

'Great Plays,' Lopez Says In White Sox Win

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "There were more good plays than I ever saw in one game."

That was Al Lopez' tribute Friday night after his Chicago White Sox had shut out New York 2-0 with Early Wynn beating young Ralph Terry. Each pitcher allowed but two hits. Terry didn't give up any until Jim McAnany singled in the ninth. Wynn also had a no-hitter going until Terry beat out a ground ball on a disputed call at first base in the sixth

Chicago defenders turned in sensational plays back of Wynn. There was Jim Landis' long run to grab Mickey Mantle's drive in deep center in the fourth, Al Smith's tumbling catch of Enos Slaughter's fast-sinking fly in left center in the fifth.

Most important to Wynn was Earl Torgeson's play on Mantle's terrific smash in the ninth that he turned into a rally-killing double play. "I just hoped it didn't drag Torgy out into the grass," said Wynn as he sank wearily to a stool in front of his locker. It was a great night for the 39-year-old Wynn whose total of 261 victories is tops in both leagues for active pitchers.

"How about all those great plays in back of you?" Wynn was asked.

"Routine, just routine," he said with a grin. "You haven't been seeing our ball club enough. They could have been a couple of steps faster."

Calhoun Wins By Decision

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Sleepy-eyed Rory Calhoun, winner of a 10-round split decision, said today he had to chase Dick Tiger to make the fight.

Most of Friday night's crowd of 1,320 thought differently. They howled and tossed refuse into the ring after Judges Dick Fazio and Harold McGrath awarded the last three rounds to Calhoun and a 6-4 margin.

Referee Joe Palmer saw the middleweight scrap 5-3-2 for Tiger. So did The AP.

Calhoun, from White Plains, N.Y., closed fast last June 5 in New York's Madison Square Garden to earn a draw with Tiger in a fight good enough to win a quick rematch.

Friday night's effort probably sent a nationwide television and radio audience to bed early.

Calhoun, 24, and five years younger than Tiger, showed more aggressiveness toward the end. This probably impressed Fazio and McGrath.

The win boosted Calhoun's record to 40-7-2. Tiger, the British Empire middleweight champion, now is 32-9-2.

Tribe Wins, 8-7; 2 Thumbed Out

BOSTON (AP)—The Cleveland Indians snapped a three-game losing string with an 8-7 victory over Boston Friday night, putting down a three-run uprising by the Red Sox in the final inning.

The big story, though, was another of the Indians' battles with the umpires. This one was a beaut. It came in the eighth inning with Manager Joe Gordon and left fielder Minnie Minoso tossed from the game.

Minoso, incidentally, was called out on strikes, taking the last two pitches while standing outside the batter's box.

The dispute—one of the most heated in several years — started when second base umpire Jim Honochick ruled Vic Power interfered with Herb Plews while Plews fielded a grounder.

Gordon thought different. He argued loud and long, carrying his appeal to three umpires and finally to plate umpire Frank Umont. During this debate, Umont ejected Gordon.

After one pitch to Minoso, Gordon stormed back onto the field to argue another point. Umont refused to listen and ordered pitcher Leo Kiely to continue throwing. Minoso was out of the batter's box and Kiely's two pitches were called strikes. Minoso then blew his top and got a quick exit sign from Umont.

That really infuriated the fiery Cuban. He lossed his bat along the ground in the direction of Umont, who had to jump to avoid being struck. Minoso finally was forcibly restrained by his teammates.

Winning pitcher in the wild contest was Bobby Locke, the 25-year-old rookie righthander, posting his first triumph in the majors.

Locke was sailing along with a four-hitter and an 8-1 lead when the Red Sox roughed him up in the seventh for three runs. They got three more in the ninth off Jim Perry and Gary Bell, who finally put out the fire by striking out Bobby Avila with the potential tying and winning runs on first and second.

Locke aided his own cause considerably with a two-run double. The Indians scored two runs in each of the first two innings, Boston errors contributing to the scoring.

Rocky Colavito belted his 29th home run in the third inning. Power drove in two runs and scored another.

Marty Keough homered for the Red Sox, who made 10 hits to the Indians' 14.

The series continues today with Herb Score facing Frank Sullivan of Boston. By winning, the Indians kept pace with Chicago, which beat New York and retained its one-game lead in the American League chase.

Gordon Can't Protest, Minnie Won't Pay Fine

BOSTON (AP)—Cleveland may be out of first place but not the headlines. The irate Indians today featured a manager protesting a game he can't protest and an outfielder refusing to pay a fine he hasn't received.

It happened Friday night when Joe Gordon and Minnie Minoso were thrown out by plate umpire Frank Umont during Cleveland's 8-7 squeaker over Boston.

Against baseball's conduct rules, Gordon rushed from the dugout following his banishment to announce he would protest the game.

Umont said he couldn't protest in his role of outcast.

Umont said he would file a report to American League President Joe Cronin claiming he was bumped by Minoso.

"Me pay no fine," shouted the angry Cuban in the dressing room. "They fine me I write letter to president (Cronin). I no Ted Williams. I no have that kind of money. No fine. I got terrible temper but I no hit umpire. They not going to put show on road with me."

Minoso said he had refused to bat because Coach Jo-Jo White was not at third.

"Umont wouldn't listen to me," said Minnie. "I don't think he even realized that White wasn't on the field."

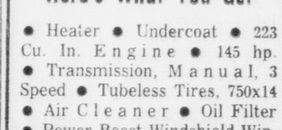

It was the second time this season Umont tossed Minoso out of a game.

"I no going to talk to him rest of year," fumed Minnie.

Ralph Terry, Yankee pitcher, is a student during the off-season. He majors in psychology and has two semesters to go for his degree.

Wynn Bests Terry In Double 2-Hit Duel As Chisox Win

Orioles, A's Down Tigers And Senators

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

At 39, Early Wynn is one of the winningest pitchers the majors have known.

Friday night, Wynn won his 261st. Backed by fine fielding, he knocked off the New York Yankees in a double two-hit duel with young Ralph Terry as the White Sox, hitless for eight innings, won it 2-0 in the ninth and retained their one-game lead in the American League race.

Second place Cleveland barely managed to keep the pace, almost blowing a seven-run lead before beating Boston 8-7. Third place Baltimore handed Detroit a fifth straight loss 3-2 and Kansas City cooled off Washington 7-4.

In the National League, San Francisco beat Pittsburgh 4-1 for a two-game lead — their largest of the season—over second place Los Angeles, edged 3-2 by Philadelphia. Milwaukee lost its fourth straight, 4-3 at St. Louis. The Chicago Cubs defeated Cincinnati 1-0.

Jim McAnany, a rookie batting .392 in 14 games since being called up by the White Sox, got the first hit off Terry, a clean single leading off the ninth. Then, after McAnany beat Terry's throw to second on Wynn's bunt and Luis Aparicio sacrificed the runners to third and second, Nellie Fox purposely was walked.

With the bases loaded, Jim Landis sliced a two-run single to right—after Berra had dropped his two-strike foul tip—and it was Wynn's victory to lock up.

Cleveland, after losing three straight, came off a winner when reliever Gary Bell ended a second three-run Boston rally by putting a called third strike past Bobby Avila for the final out, with the tying and lead runs on base. That saved rookie Larry Locke's first victory after he was chased by Marty Keough's one-on homer in a three-run seventh.

Brooks Robinson's first homer and a two-run error by Rocky Bridges with the bases loaded on walks gave the Orioles their three runs with two out in the second inning. Don Mossi (7-4) lost it, although allowing only three hits. Hec Brown (6-5) won it.

The A's broke a 3-3 tie at Washington with four runs in the seventh on Dick Williams' single and Harry Chiti's double. Ned Garver (7-9) was the winner, with Russ Kemmerer (5-10) taking the loss.

U.S. Battles Soviet Union

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The biggest track and field extravaganza outside the Olympics pitting the two behemoths of the world—the U.S and the Soviet Union—against each other opens a two-day stand on the University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field today.

The two countries clashed in Moscow last year with the American men winning 14 firsts to 8 for the Soviets. The Soviet women won 6 firsts in their section against 4 for the American lasses.

A full Olympic program of events with the exception of the marathon was on the schedule. Opening event was the pole vault at 2:30 p.m. (EST). Sunday, between 3:30 p.m. and 5 p.m. (EST) NBC will televise the meet on a national hookup. The Soviets will be favored in two of the events that are on tap for the TV audience — the 3,000-meter steeplechase and the 5,000-meter run. The others will be the 800 meter, the 1,500 meter and the 1,600 meter relay.

The final scores are bound to be close because the tally will be on a 5-3-2-1 basis, unusual in international competition. The relays will be scored 5-3. That means, with each country entering two competitors in each event, everyone who finishes will score.

Buffalo Sweeps Pair To Extend Lead In IL

By The Associated Press

How is a pennant contender built?

With a new manager (Kerby Farrell), some reliable pitchers—and a slugger like Frank Herrera.

The formula's worked for the Buffalo Bisons, No. 1 in the International League race today after a dismal seventh-place finish last season.

Herrera was 3 - for - 6 Friday night as the Bisons swept a doubleheader from Rochester 4-1 and 5-2 to move 3½ games in front of runner-up Miami. The Marlins dropped a 5-4 decision to Havana.

In other games, torrid Toronto continued its climb with a 5-4, 10-inning victory over Montreal and Richmond defeated Columbus 3-2.

Deron Johnson's bases - loaded single in the bottom of the ninth sent across the winning run as the Virginians edged the Jets.

Oliver's Bingle Might Be Sign, Card Pilot Says

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Solly Hemus is just superstitious enough to believe that Gene Oliver's game-winning hit off Warren Spahn Friday night was a sign of the future for his St. Louis Cardinals.

"The only way we're going to win a pennant is by going along with our young players in those tough situations," the little Cardinal manager declared.

"We've lost a lot of games through inexperience, especially to the first division clubs," he admitted. "But we're on our way up.

"I still say we can get into the pennant race if our young pitchers come through."

Here was the situation when Oliver, a rookie outfielder, walked to the plate in the eighth inning:

The score was tied 3-3 after Joe Cunningham's game-tying double scoring Ken Boyer from first. Warren Spahn, the crafty 38-year-old pitching great of the Milwaukee Braves had easily retired Oliver his first three turns.

Then Oliver slashed a single to center and Spahn was a 4-3 loser.

Gene Littler Has 5-Stroke Edge In $25,000 Tourney

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) It's easy to figure why Gene Littler, the dandy pro from Singing Hills, Calif., holds a commanding lead today at the halfway mark in the $25,000 Insurance City Open Golf Tournament.

Littler has scored rounds of 64-66—130 for 36 holes, a blistering pace, over the par 71 Wethersfield Country Club's 6,548-yard course.

His brilliant putting and pinpointed drives have shot him five strokes ahead of his nearest challengers, Bruce Crampton of Sydney, Australia, and Bob Goalby of Crystal River, Fla.

He has used only 58 putts, 29 each day. He has missed only two greens and only one putt.

As the third round shaped up today, the field had been reduced from 155 to 88.

In addition to Crampton and Goalby, others ready to cash in on any lapses include Al Besselink, Grossinger, N.Y.; and Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., 136s.

Frank Beley of Canton, Ohio, tied for sixth with 70-67—137, while Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla. and Athens, Ohio, posted a second round 69 for a 36-hole total of 142.

Retired Admiral Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—Rear Adm. Samuel Paul Ginder, 65 (Ret), pioneer in Navy aviation, died Friday of a stroke. Ginder, a native of Altoona, Pa., retired from active duty in 1955 and served with the Florida Development Commission. For nearly three decades, Ginder was on continuous duty with naval aviation units. He commanded the carrier Enterprise in World War II.

Fay Crocker Posts Lead Of 2 Strokes At Alliance

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Uruguay's flag flew alongside the Stars and Stripes today at the Alliance Country Club.

Fay Crocker, the golfing miss from Montevideo, put it there. She had a two-fold reason. This is her country's 18th Independence Day and she has a two-stroke edge at the halfway point in the $12,500 Alliance International Golf Tournament—biggest on the feminine tour.

Fay has won the Argentine amateur championship 14 times and that of her native Uruguay 20 times, along with the U. S. National Open in 1955.

She explains the big South American splurge with:

"No one but the Crockers play golf in Uruguay."

Her dad won the country's title 27 times and her mother six times. Her grandfather built the first course in that country and Fay has been playing the game 41 years, since she was three.

She sank an 18-foot birdie putt on the final hole Friday for a one-under-par 70 and a two-day total of 141 over the 6,253-yard course. Patty Berg, of St. Andrews, Ill., another veteran of the golfing wars, was second with 71-72—143, just a stroke over the card.

The tourney's tiniest, 110-pound Marlene Hagge, of Pittsburgh, held third place with 144, and then came some of the most highly rated talent at 145.

Deadlocked there were Betsy Rawls, of Spartansburg, S. C., the year's big money winner with $12,804; Mickey Wright, of Bonita, Calif., the National Open queen who has tucked away a third place $10,882; Marilyn Smith, prexy of the lady golfers from French Lick, Ind.; and Mary Lena Faulk, of Thomasville, Ga., who had four birdies and only 27 putts in putting together a 69 for the second day's best round.

On the amateur side, Betty Kerby, Ohio's two - time queen from Akron, slipped to a 79 Friday but her 150 total was good for a three-stroke advantage over Phyllis Pruess, of Pompano Beach Fla., who roared in with a par 71 after an 82 opener. Judy Torluemke, 14-year-old St. Louis miss, had an 82-78—160 for a fifth place tie in the amateur ranks.

Kathyanne Whitworth, the 19-year-old touring pro from Jal, N. M. needed eight strokes on the par 3 third hole Friday and soared to an 80 after leading the first round with a 70. She chipped in for a birdie on the hole after the big eight, following some motherly consolation from Patty Berg.

The tournament winds up Sunday.

2 World Records Fall In Women's AAU Swim

REDDING, Calif. (AP) — Teenagers continued to dominate the National AAU Women's Swimming Championships today after a pair of them raced to world records in the 220-yard backstroke and 440-yard medley.

Record breakers were 19-year-old Carin Cone and blonde Sylvia Ruuska.

Shapely Carin beat defending champion Chris Von Saltza in the backstroke and went the distance in 2 minutes 27.9 seconds to erase the world mark of 2:38.5 by L. De Nijs of Holland in 1957.

Then came 17-year-old Sylvia and the greatest performance ever in the 440-yard medley in which the racers swim one lap each of breaststroke, backstroke, butterfly and freestyle.

Miss Ruuska, a senior at Berkeley High School, went the distance in 5 minutes 40.2 seconds. The International Swimming Federation last year in setting up the event for world competition had set 5:52 or better for recognition as records.

Miss Cone, from Ridgewood, N.J., and swimming for the Houston Shamrocks since she's a sophomore at the University of Houston, was swimming the 220 as a final long race conditioner for the 100-meter backstroke in this summer's Pan American Games.

Other winners Friday included: Miss Von Saltza of Saratoga, Calif., with 1:04.8, and American citizen's record, in the 110-yard freestyle.

Ann Warner, 14-year-old from the Santa Clara Club with an American record of 3:02.4 for the 220-yard breaststroke.

Competition continued today in this 55-yard Lake Redding Park pool with the 3-meter springboard diving, 110-yard butterfly, 440-yard freestyle, 110-yard breaststroke, and 440-yard freestyle relay.

Grace, Oakland, 2nd Church Glenmoor Win In 'Y' Softball

Grace United Presbyterian continued to roll over opponents in the YMCA Church softball league Friday by routing Calcutta UP, 11-1. Oakland Free Methodist, Second Church of Christ and Glenmoor also captured victories.

The Grace UP squad won its seventh game in eight starts as Gene Talbott hurled a three-hitter. Johnson led the sluggers with three hits, and McMillan and Hulme each got a pair of hits.

Thompson led the losers at the plate with a single and a triple. Russell was charged with the pitcher's defeat. Joe Anderson hit a grand slam homer for the winners.

Bob Swogger pitched and batted Oakland Free Methodist to a 13-11 victory over First Methodist Church. Swogger slammed three hits but was nicked for 15 hits in mound action. Bill Richardson also stroked three hits including a homer.

A one - hitter by Gene Talbott provided Second Church of Christ with a 5-2 victory over First Church of Christ. J. Horner, G. Talbott and L. Talbott each had two hits for the winners. Morris homered for the Second Church of Christ. J. Pease had the lone hit for the losing squad.

Glenmoor blasted out 18 hits and got as many runs to trounce St. John's Lutheran, 18-10. The losers were held to eight hits by Floyd Jones of Glenmoor.

McGaffic was charged with the defeat. Jones homered and also slammed a double.

In another game Tuesday, Glenmoor whipped Calcutta UP, 7-6. Jones bested Russell on the mound.

4 More Are Selected For All-Star Grid Game

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP) — Kent Stewart of Bridgeport and Steve Kokovich of Adena have been selected to play in the West Virginia - Ohio all - star football game here Aug. 15. Both the 6-2, 160-pound Stewart and the 5-11, 170-pound Kokovich play end.

At 39, Early Wynn is one of the winningest pitchers the majors have known.

Friday night, Wynn won his 261st. Backed by fine fielding, he knocked off the New York Yankees in a double two-hit duel with young Ralph Terry as the White Sox, hitless for eight innings, won it 2-0 in the ninth and retained their one-game lead in the American League race.

Second place Cleveland barely managed to keep the pace, almost blowing a seven-run lead before beating Boston 8-7. Third place Baltimore handed Detroit a fifth straight loss 3-2 and Kansas City cooled off Washington 7-4.

In the National League, San Francisco beat Pittsburgh 4-1 for a two-game lead — their largest of the season—over second place Los Angeles, edged 3-2 by Philadelphia. Milwaukee lost its fourth straight, 4-3 at St. Louis. The Chicago Cubs defeated Cincinnati 1-0.

Jim McAnany, a rookie batting .392 in 14 games since being called up by the White Sox, got the first hit off Terry, a clean single leading off the ninth. Then, after McAnany beat Terry's throw to second on Wynn's bunt and Luis Aparicio sacrificed the runners to third and second, Nellie Fox purposely was walked.

With the bases loaded, Jim Landis sliced a two-run single to right—after Berra had dropped his two-strike foul tip—and it was Wynn's victory to lock up.

Cleveland, after losing three straight, came off a winner when reliever Gary Bell ended a second three-run Boston rally by putting a called third strike past Bobby Avila for the final out, with the tying and lead runs on base. That saved rookie Larry Locke's first victory after he was chased by Marty Keough's one-on homer in a three-run seventh.

Brooks Robinson's first homer and a two-run error by Rocky Bridges with the bases loaded on walks gave the Orioles their three runs with two out in the second inning. Don Mossi (7-4) lost it, although allowing only three hits. Hec Brown (6-5) won it.

The A's broke a 3-3 tie at Washington with four runs in the seventh on Dick Williams' single and Harry Chiti's double. Ned Garver (7-9) was the winner, with Russ Kemmerer (5-10) taking the loss.

U.S. Battles Soviet Union

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The biggest track and field extravaganza outside the Olympics pitting the two behemoths of the world—the U.S and the Soviet Union—against each other opens a two-day stand on the University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field today.

The two countries clashed in Moscow last year with the American men winning 14 firsts to 8 for the Soviets. The Soviet women won 6 firsts in their section against 4 for the American lasses.

A full Olympic program of events with the exception of the marathon was on the schedule. Opening event was the pole vault at 2:30 p.m. (EST). Sunday, between 3:30 p.m. and 5 p.m. (EST) NBC will televise the meet on a national hookup. The Soviets will be favored in two of the events that are on tap for the TV audience — the 3,000-meter steeplechase and the 5,000-meter run. The others will be the 800 meter, the 1,500 meter and the 1,600 meter relay.

The final scores are bound to be close because the tally will be on a 5-3-2-1 basis, unusual in international competition. The relays will be scored 5-3. That means, with each country entering two competitors in each event, everyone who finishes will score.

Buffalo Sweeps Pair To Extend Lead In IL

By The Associated Press

How is a pennant contender built?

With a new manager (Kerby Farrell), some reliable pitchers—and a slugger like Frank Herrera.

The formula's worked for the Buffalo Bisons, No. 1 in the International League race today after a dismal seventh-place finish last season.

Herrera, was 3 - for - 6 Friday night as the Bisons swept a doubleheader from Rochester 4-1 and 5-2 to move 3½ games in front of runner-up Miami. The Marlins dropped a 5-4 decision to Havana.

In other games, torrid Toronto continued its climb with a 5-4, 10-inning victory over Montreal and Richmond defeated Columbus 3-2.

Deron Johnson's bases - loaded single in the bottom of the ninth sent across the winning run as the Virginians edged the Jets.

Oliver's Bingle Might Be Sign, Card Pilot Says

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Solly Hemus is just superstitious enough to believe that Gene Oliver's game-winning hit off Warren Spahn Friday night was a sign of the future for his St. Louis Cardinals.

"The only way we're going to win a pennant is by going along with our young players in those tough situations," the little Cardinal manager declared.

"We've lost a lot of games through inexperience, especially to the first division clubs," he admitted. "But we're on our way up.

"I still say we can get into the pennant race if our young pitchers come through."

Here was the situation when Oliver, a rookie outfielder, walked to the plate in the eighth inning:

The score was tied 3-3 after Joe Cunningham's game-tying double scoring Ken Boyer from first. Warren Spahn, the crafty 38-year-old pitching great of the Milwaukee Braves had easily retired Oliver his first three turns.

Then Oliver slashed a single to center and Spahn was a 4-3 loser.

Gene Littler Has 5-Stroke Edge In $25,000 Tourney

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) It's easy to figure why Gene Littler, the dandy pro from Singing Hills, Calif., holds a commanding lead today at the halfway mark in the $25,000 Insurance City Open Golf Tournament.

Littler has scored rounds of 64-66—130 for 36 holes, a blistering pace, over the par 71 Wethersfield Country Club's 6,548-yard course.

His brilliant putting and pinpointed drives have shot him five strokes ahead of his nearest challengers, Bruce Crampton of Sydney, Australia, and Bob Goalby of Crystal River, Fla.

He has used only 58 putts, 29 each day. He has missed only two greens and only one putt.

As the third round shaped up today, the field had been reduced from 155 to 88.

In addition to Crampton and Goalby, others ready to cash in on any lapses include Al Besselink, Grossinger, N.Y.; and Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., 136s.

Frank Beley of Canton, Ohio, tied for sixth with 70-67—137, while Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla. and Athens, Ohio, posted a second round 69 for a 36-hole total of 142.

Ginder, a native of Altoona, Pa., retired from active duty in 1955 and served with the Florida Development Commission. For nearly three decades, Ginder was on continuous duty with naval aviation units. He commanded the carrier Enterprise in World War II.

Fay Crocker Posts Lead Of 2 Strokes At Alliance

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Uruguay's flag flew alongside the Stars and Stripes today at the Alliance Country Club.

Fay Crocker, the golfing miss from Montevideo, put it there. She had a two-fold reason. This is her country's 18th Independence Day and she has a two-stroke edge at the halfway point in the $12,500 Alliance International Golf Tournament—biggest on the feminine tour.

Fay has won the Argentine amateur championship 14 times and that of her native Uruguay 20 times, along with the U. S. National Open in 1955.

She explains the big South American splurge with:

"No one but the Crockers play golf in Uruguay."

Her dad won the country's title 27 times and her mother six times. Her grandfather built the first course in that country and Fay has been playing the game 41 years, since she was three.

She sank an 18-foot birdie putt on the final hole Friday for a one-under-par 70 and a two-day total of 141 over the 6,253-yard course. Patty Berg, of St. Andrews, Ill., another veteran of the golfing wars, was second with 71-72—143, just a stroke over the card.

The tourney's tiniest, 110-pound Marlene Hagge, of Pittsburgh, held third place with 144, and then came some of the most highly rated talent at 145.

Deadlocked there were Betsy Rawls, of Spartansburg, S. C., the year's big money winner with $12,804; Mickey Wright, of Bonita, Calif., the National Open queen who has tucked away a third place $10,882; Marilyn Smith, prexy of the lady golfers from French Lick, Ind.; and Mary Lena Faulk, of Thomasville, Ga., who had four birdies and only 27 putts in putting together a 69 for the second day's best round.

On the amateur side, Betty Kerby, Ohio's two - time queen from Akron, slipped to a 79 Friday but her 150 total was good for a three-stroke advantage over Phyllis Pruess, of Pompano Beach Fla., who roared in with a par 71 after an 82 opener. Judy Torluemke, 14-year-old St. Louis miss, had an 82-78—160 for a fifth place tie in the amateur ranks.

Kathyanne Whitworth, the 19-year-old touring pro from Jal, N. M. needed eight strokes on the par 3 third hole Friday and soared to an 80 after leading the first round with a 70. She chipped in for a birdie on the hole after the big eight, following some motherly consolation from Patty Berg.

The tournament winds up Sunday.

2 World Records Fall In Women's AAU Swim

REDDING, Calif. (AP) — Teenagers continued to dominate the National AAU Women's Swimming Championships today after a pair of them raced to world records in the 220-yard backstroke and 440-yard medley.

Record breakers were 19-year-old Carin Cone and blonde Sylvia Ruuska.

Shapely Carin beat defending champion Chris Von Saltza in the backstroke and went the distance in 2 minutes 27.9 seconds to erase the world mark of 2:38.5 by L. De Nijs of Holland in 1957.

Then came 17-year-old Sylvia and the greatest performance ever in the 440-yard medley in which the racers swim one lap each of breaststroke, backstroke, butterfly and freestyle.

Miss Ruuska, a senior at Berkeley High School, went the distance in 5 minutes 40.2 seconds. The International Swimming Federation last year in setting up the event for world competition had set 5:52 or better for recognition as records.

Miss Cone, from Ridgewood, N.J., and swimming for the Houston Shamrocks since she's a sophomore at the University of Houston, was swimming the 220 as a final long race conditioner for the 100-meter backstroke in this summer's Pan American Games.

Other winners Friday included: Miss Von Saltza of Saratoga, Calif., with 1:04.8, and American citizen's record, in the 110-yard freestyle.

Ann Warner, 14-year-old from the Santa Clara Club with an American record of 3:02.4 for the 220-yard breaststroke.

Competition continued today in this 55-yard Lake Redding Park pool with the 3-meter springboard diving, 110-yard butterfly, 440-yard freestyle, 110-yard breaststroke, and 440-yard freestyle relay.

Grace, Oakland, 2nd Church Glenmoor Win In 'Y' Softball

Grace United Presbyterian continued to roll over opponents in the YMCA Church softball league Friday by routing Calcutta UP, 11-1. Oakland Free Methodist, Second Church of Christ and Glenmoor also captured victories.

The Grace UP squad won its seventh game in eight starts as Gene Talbott hurled a three-hitter. Johnson led the sluggers with three hits, and McMillan and Hulme each got a pair of hits.

Thompson led the losers at the plate with a single and a triple. Russell was charged with the pitcher's defeat. Joe Anderson hit a grand slam homer for the winners.

Bob Swogger pitched and batted Oakland Free Methodist to a 13-11 victory over First Methodist Church. Swogger slammed three hits but was nicked for 15 hits in mound action. Bill Richardson also stroked three hits including a homer.

A one - hitter by Gene Talbott provided Second Church of Christ with a 5-2 victory over First Church of Christ. J. Horner, G. Talbott and L. Talbott each had two hits for the winners. Morris homered for the Second Church of Christ. J. Pease had the lone hit for the losing squad.

Glenmoor blasted out 18 hits and got as many runs to trounce St. John's Lutheran, 18-10. The losers were held to eight hits by Floyd Jones of Glenmoor.

McGaffic was charged with the defeat. Jones homered and also slammed a double.

In another game Tuesday, Glenmoor whipped Calcutta UP, 7-6. Jones bested Russell on the mound.

4 More Are Selected For All-Star Grid Game

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP) — Kent Stewart of Bridgeport and Steve Kokovich of Adena have been selected to play in the West Virginia - Ohio all - star football game here Aug. 15. Both the 6-2, 160-pound Stewart and the 5-11, 170-pound Kokovich play end.

In Ohio Assembly Debate

Democratic Leaders Roughed Up

By DUANE E. CROFT
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — At a critical stage in the legislative game—adjournment eve—the Democratic leadership in the 103rd General Assembly took a rough going-over during the last week.

In the House, Majority Leader Jesse Yoder (Montgomery) was accused of "double-crossing" some of his party members in the voting on the controversial bill to increase workmen's compensation benefits.

In the Senate, Majority Leader Frank King (Toledo) found his efforts to pass a school subsidy bill favoring tax-wealthy districts stalled by a bloc of Democratic senators who represent poorer districts.

Yoder's troubles grew out of his efforts—supported by labor and some employers—to change the hearing and appeal setup on disputed claims for workmen's compensation.

The majority leader wanted to amend the bill along lines laid down by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle to leave the law as it now is.

Many of his party members favored a return to the pre-1955 setup on disputed claim. They contend the system now causes innumerable delays, depriving injured workers of their benefits and increasing the premiums paid by employers because of the bigger reserves needed in the compensation fund to cover pending claims.

Agrees On Caucus

Hoder reportedly agreed in an extended party caucus to vote for such an amendment and to offer his own only if the first one failed.

It did fail, but on a 63-63 vote with Yoder abstaining.

Then Yoder offered his own amendment and managed to put it through with GOP help.

There were immediate cries of betrayal and double-cross, because Yoder could have put the first amendment across by breaking the tie vote.

Front-running accuser of the majority leader was Rep. Martin Galvin (Lucas), a protege of DiSalle and a key figure in the House as chairman of the powerful Reference Committee.

So strong was the anti-Yoder feeling among Democrats that the following morning, in another party caucus, there were suggestions that Yoder resign his leadership post.

Rackets Bill Is Victim

Its effect was still felt later in the day when the governor's labor rackets bill went down to defeat. One legislator estimated that as many as 10 of the 39 Democratic "pays" could be attributed to the fact that Yoder was a sponsor of the measure.

Ten more "yeas" would not have saved the bill, but they would have taken some of the bitter edge off the defeat.

Over in the Senate, King found himself in about the same position he was in a couple of months ago during the drawn-out "blood-letting" over the sales tax increase.

The trouble started when the upper chamber received from the House a bill to increase state subsidies to schools. Sponsors of the measure already were bitter over the "rob-the-poor-to-pay-the-rich" changes made by Cuyahoga and Hamilton county representatives, who hold the balance of power in the House.

Big Cities' Voice Big

The big cities have an even bigger voice in the Senate, so when it was discovered that the House version exceeded the budget by some 8½ million dollars, the shaving was done by cutting back on teachers' salary allowances and jacking up the "current expense" factor in the complicated subsidy formula.

The effect was that every wealthy district in the state would get exactly the same amount as under the House version, but virtually every poor district would get less.

King himself had a hand in the arrangement, because he represents Toledo and other wealthy districts.

Getting the bill out of the Senate Education Committee, headed by Sen. Ed Witmer (D-Canton), by no means assured its passage on the floor, however.

King found that out when he called a party caucus the next day to line up support. Such senators as J. Sherman Porter (Gallipolis), Oliver Ocasek (Northfield) and Danny D. Johnson (New Philadelphia) just couldn't go along.

In 'Pressure Cooker'

After hours in the "pressure cooker" of the caucus, the bill was put back into Rules Committee, where King said it would stay until he got the votes to put it across.

The flaw in King's position is that it is much weaker than it was when he was fighting the sales tax battle.

With adjournment near and the fate of most bills pretty well determined, the "holdout" senators have little or nothing to bargain for. They can stand pat as long as their leader can.

Possibly even longer, because adjournment fever grows every day and the pressure rests squarely on the leadership to wrap things up.

Small wonder, then, that King was absent from the session finally called after the school bill caucus.

He was reported suffering from a case of "nervous stomach."

Woman Accused Of Killing Brothers

Police Wrap Up Details In Alabama Murder Case

ANNISTON, Ala. (AP)—Police today were wrapping up details of two murders in which 30-year-old Viola Hyatt is accused of dismembering the bodies and scattering the remains over a wide area.

The tall, dark-haired woman is charged with murdering two brothers who lived in a house trailer on her father's farm.

She is accused of mutilating the victims and hauling the torsos to Gadsden, Ala., about 35 miles away, dumping them near abandoned houses. The arms and legs were discarded en route.

Her route to Gadsden from White Plains, Ala., about 20 miles from Anniston, covered a wide area. Police spent most of Friday with Miss Hyatt retracing the route.

At least two arms and two legs have been found. And when the search ended Friday night, officers had other evidence but they weren't talking.

They returned Miss Hyatt to jail in Aniston, where she is being held pending grand jury action.

Officers said Miss Hyatt told them she killed Emmett Harper, 48, and Lee Ander Harper, 55, on June 27 because they had abused her physically. She said they also abused her father. She gave their "drinking habits" and an argument over use of a car as other motives.

The Harpers' box-type house trailer is near the unpainted frame farm house where Miss Hyatt lived with her elderly father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hyatt. Officers found bloodstains in and around the trailer. The door had been blasted with a shotgun.

The victims had been shot in the face with a shotgun before they were dismembered.

One torso was found June 28 and the other was discovered June 29.

A blood-stained double-edge ax, believed used in the mutilation, was dug up near the trailer.

Officers quoted Miss Hyatt as saying she had put the bodies in a wheelbarrow and pushed them to a car.

The torsos were found just off busy U.S. 11, which links New Jersey and New Orleans.

Members of the Harper family said Emmett Harper was a survivor of the Bataan Death March of 1942.

Don't Delay In Entering Levies Vote Board Tells Subdivisions

Subdivisions which have delayed filing tax levies, hoping to take advantage of changes in election laws approved by the State Legislature, were encouraged by the County Election Board today to file the measures now.

The delay in certifying levies for the Nov. 3 general election has been created because one section of the law, which becomes effective Sept. 11, reduces the per centage needed for passage to a bare majority for all taxing districts other than school districts.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, board clerk, explained school districts always have needed only a majority for passage unless the levies were submitted at special elections.

Although no copies of the changes have been received, O'Hanlon said the board has been informed by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown's office that subdivisions can file levies now and they still will receive the advantage of the new law.

Two subdivisions already have submitted levies for the Nov. 3 election, O'Hanlon said.

The Southern Local School District is asking renewal of two levies totaling 5 mills, which would require only a majority for passage, he said.

Knox Township trustees have filed a 2-mill levy for road improvement, which apparently comes under the new law establishing a majority for passage, he continued.

The Legislature also has approved a bill permitting school districts to submit levies for an indefinite period, O'Hanlon said, which would allow levies to remain in effect until rescinded by the school district.

However, the bill also is not effective until Sept. 11 and school boards would have only a few days to act before the Sept. 14 deadline for filing levies under the uniform tax law, he explained.

Meanshile, two Perry Township officials have filed for re-election at the general election.

They are Joseph Reese for trustee and Richard L. Hutcheson for clerk.

Mrs. Ralph Smith of Beloit, a former Wellsville resident, has been removed to her home from Alliance City Hospital, where she was taken following a heart attack a month ago.

More Trouble Faces Driver In 3rd Arrest

An East End motorist who already owes the city approximately $250 on two old traffic charges was fined an additional $325 and sentenced to 10 days in jail on two new counts.

Lan Bennett, 41, of 815 Price St. was fined $300 and costs and given the jail term by Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw on a drunk driving charge.

Bennett was fined an additional $25 and costs for driving without an operator's permit.

He was arrested shortly after 1 a. m. today at Pennsylvania Ave. and Price St., police said. A former Chester resident, his West Virginia operator's permit expired July 1, officers said.

Court records show Price owes $70 on a charge of being in physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated and about $130 on a drunk driving charge.

He was cited on the physical control charge in December 1955 and was back in court six months later on the drunk driving count, the records show.

James W. Reid of Weirton forfeited a $16 bond on a charge of passing at an intersection. He was cited Friday afternoon on Route 7 by the State Highway Patrol.

William James Vietmeier, 34, of West Point was released to post bond after his arrest about 4 a. m. today on McKinnon Ave. on a reckless driving charge.

Police said Vietmeier turned from E. 6th St. onto St. Clair Ave. and drove up the long thoroughfare at a high rate of speed and with his tires screeching on bends.

Driver Pays $10 Fine After East End Mishap

An East End driver was fined $10 and costs in Municipal Court as the aftermath of a collision this morning at 8:30 at Pennsylvania Ave. and Palissey St.

Robert Exton, 2114 Ohio Ave., pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to stop within the assured clear distance after his car struck the rear of an auto driven by Loretta Hancock, 54, of 1808 Anderson Blvd.

Exton said he was unable to stop when the woman slowed to pull into the curb.

Police said the rear fender, bumper and trunk of the woman's 1959 sedan were damaged, along with the right front fender and grill of Exton's 1952 auto.

State Reduces Utility Values

NEW CUMBERLAND — Public utility assessments in Hancock County have been reduced $116,100 from last year, according to the Public Service Commission estimate made by the State Board of Public Works at Charleston.

The PSC has set assessments for this year at $5,496,900 for tax purposes. Last year's assessment figure was $5,613,000.

The reduction came in Class I assessments (money, bonds, etc.), where a drop of $148,100 was noted. However, the reduction was curbed a little in the Class III assessments (utilities outside municipal limits), where a $25,900 gain was noted.

Another rise was made in the Class IV assessment (utilities within corporate limits), where figures rose from $2,870,100 to $2,876,100 for a $6,000 gain.

The Monongahela Power Co. was assessed the largest amount of any county utility—$2,715,700. Last year, the power firm was assessed $2,759,300.

Other utility assessments for 1959 are:

E. I. Dupont de Nemours & Co. $16,700; American Telephone and Telegraph Co., $1,700; Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., $917,400; Western Union, $800; Ashland Pipe Line Co., $1,900.

Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., $837,600; Sinclair Pipe Line Co., $1,500; Newell Co., $115,700; American Bus Lines, Inc., $700; Eastern Greyhound Lines, $13,600; Pittsburgh and Weirton Bus Co., $57,600; Newell Bridge and Railway Co., $200,000, and Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., $616,000.

Suspects Bound Over In Leetonia Auto Theft

LISBON — Three Lisbon area men pleaded guilty Friday in Mayor Ralph Kennedy's Court at Leetonia on auto theft charges and were bound over to the September Grand Jury under $2,000 bonds.

Ralph Groff, 21, of R. D. 3, William House, 21, of Pritchard Ave., and Kenneth McVay, 24, of Pleasant Heights were returned to the county jail in lieu of bond. They pleaded guilty to stealing a 1956 Dodge owned by Ralph Stumpo of Leetonia May 21 and then abandoning it on a township road southwest of Lisbon.

The car was located last week by sheriff's deputies but the wheels, tires and battery were missing. The trio also is being questioned about another stolen car recovered in the same vicinity.

Hancock Tax Protests Deadline Fixed Monday

Hancock County residents today were reminded that Monday is the final day for filing tax protests with county commissioners, who have been sitting this week as a Board of Equalization and Review.

Commissioners William C. Graham of Chester, Lyle Virden of New Cumberland and Dave N. Thomas of Weirton will hear any property tax complaints from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. in the Court House at New Cumberland.

The three began their complaint sessions July 6, but as of Friday they had received no protests.

FBI's Report Awaited In Hancock Arm Puzzle

NEW CUMBERLAND — Investigation into the mystery of a human right arm found in a basement here Tuesday has been halted temporarily by Hancock County authorities to await a report from the FBI laboratory in Washington.

The arm, severed crudely about two inches above the elbow, was sent by air express to the FBI, which may determine how long it was buried.

The sheriff's office has not discounted the theory of foul play and believes the arm was buried sometime in the last decade. Other residents believe the arm was amputated by a doctor and buried in the 1900's.

Don't Delay In Entering Levies Vote Board Tells Subdivisions

Subdivisions which have delayed filing tax levies, hoping to take advantage of changes in election laws approved by the State Legislature, were encouraged by the County Election Board today to file the measures now.

The delay in certifying levies for the Nov. 3 general election has been created because one section of the law, which becomes effective Sept. 11, reduces the per centage needed for passage to a bare majority for all taxing districts other than school districts.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, board clerk, explained school districts always have needed only a majority for passage unless the levies were submitted at special elections.

Although no copies of the changes have been received, O'Hanlon said the board has been informed by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown's office that subdivisions can file levies now and they still will receive the advantage of the new law.

Two subdivisions already have submitted levies for the Nov. 3 election, O'Hanlon said.

The Southern Local School District is asking renewal of two levies totaling 5 mills, which would require only a majority for passage, he said.

Knox Township trustees have filed a 2-mill levy for road improvement, which apparently comes under the new law establishing a majority for passage, he continued.

The Legislature also has approved a bill permitting school districts to submit levies for an indefinite period, O'Hanlon said, which would allow levies to remain in effect until rescinded by the school district.

However, the bill also is not effective until Sept. 11 and school boards would have only a few days to act before the Sept. 14 deadline for filing levies under the uniform tax law, he explained.

Meanshile, two Perry Township officials have filed for re-election at the general election.

They are Joseph Reese for trustee and Richard L. Hutcheson for clerk.

Mrs. Ralph Smith of Beloit, a former Wellsville resident, has been removed to her home from Alliance City Hospital, where she was taken following a heart attack a month ago.

More Trouble Faces Driver In 3rd Arrest

An East End motorist who already owes the city approximately $250 on two old traffic charges was fined an additional $325 and sentenced to 10 days in jail on two new counts.

Lan Bennett, 41, of 815 Price St. was fined $300 and costs and given the jail term by Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw on a drunk driving charge.

Bennett was fined an additional $25 and costs for driving without an operator's permit.

He was arrested shortly after 1 a. m. today at Pennsylvania Ave. and Price St., police said. A former Chester resident, his West Virginia operator's permit expired July 1, officers said.

Court records show Price owes $70 on a charge of being in physical control of a motor vehicle while intoxicated and about $130 on a drunk driving charge.

He was cited on the physical control charge in December 1955 and was back in court six months later on the drunk driving count, the records show.

James W. Reid of Weirton forfeited a $16 bond on a charge of passing at an intersection. He was cited Friday afternoon on Route 7 by the State Highway Patrol.

William James Vietmeier, 34, of West Point was released to post bond after his arrest about 4 a. m. today on McKinnon Ave. on a reckless driving charge.

Police said Vietmeier turned from E. 6th St. onto St. Clair Ave. and drove up the long thoroughfare at a high rate of speed and with his tires screeching on bends.

Driver Pays $10 Fine After East End Mishap

An East End driver was fined $10 and costs in Municipal Court as the aftermath of a collision this morning at 8:30 at Pennsylvania Ave. and Palissey St.

Robert Exton, 2114 Ohio Ave., pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to stop within the assured clear distance after his car struck the rear of an auto driven by Loretta Hancock, 54, of 1808 Anderson Blvd.

Exton said he was unable to stop when the woman slowed to pull into the curb.

Police said the rear fender, bumper and trunk of the woman's 1959 sedan were damaged, along with the right front fender and grill of Exton's 1952 auto.

Club Plans Barbecue

LISBON — The Winona Ruritan Club will hold a public chicken barbecue tonight from 5 to 9 at an empty lot alongside the Methodist Church. Proceeds will be used to purchase playground equipment for village lots.

State Reduces Utility Values

NEW CUMBERLAND — Public utility assessments in Hancock County have been reduced $116,100 from last year, according to the Public Service Commission estimate made by the State Board of Public Works at Charleston.

The PSC has set assessments for this year at $5,496,900 for tax purposes. Last year's assessment figure was $5,613,000.

The reduction came in Class I assessments (money, bonds, etc.), where a drop of $148,100 was noted. However, the reduction was curbed a little in the Class III assessments (utilities outside municipal limits), where a $25,900 gain was noted.

Another rise was made in the Class IV assessment (utilities within corporate limits), where figures rose from $2,870,100 to $2,876,100 for a $6,000 gain.

The Monongahela Power Co. was assessed the largest amount of any county utility—$2,715,700. Last year, the power firm was assessed $2,759,300.

Other utility assessments for 1959 are:

E. I. Dupont de Nemours & Co. $16,700; American Telephone and Telegraph Co., $1,700; Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., $917,400; Western Union, $800; Ashland Pipe Line Co., $1,900.

Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., $837,600; Sinclair Pipe Line Co., $1,500; Newell Co., $115,700; American Bus Lines, Inc., $700; Eastern Greyhound Lines, $13,600; Pittsburgh and Weirton Bus Co., $57,600; Newell Bridge and Railway Co., $200,000, and Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., $616,000.

Suspects Bound Over In Leetonia Auto Theft

LISBON — Three Lisbon area men pleaded guilty Friday in Mayor Ralph Kennedy's Court at Leetonia on auto theft charges and were bound over to the September Grand Jury under $2,000 bonds.

Ralph Groff, 21, of R. D. 3, William House, 21, of Pritchard Ave., and Kenneth McVay, 24, of Pleasant Heights were returned to the county jail in lieu of bond. They pleaded guilty to stealing a 1956 Dodge owned by Ralph Stumpo of Leetonia May 21 and then abandoning it on a township road southwest of Lisbon.

The car was located last week by sheriff's deputies but the wheels, tires and battery were missing. The trio also is being questioned about another stolen car recovered in the same vicinity.

Hancock Tax Protests Deadline Fixed Monday

Hancock County residents today were reminded that Monday is the final day for filing tax protests with county commissioners, who have been sitting this week as a Board of Equalization and Review.

Commissioners William C. Graham of Chester, Lyle Virden of New Cumberland and Dave N. Thomas of Weirton will hear any property tax complaints from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. in the Court House at New Cumberland.

The three began their complaint sessions July 6, but as of Friday they had received no protests.

FBI's Report Awaited In Hancock Arm Puzzle

NEW CUMBERLAND — Investigation into the mystery of a human right arm found in a basement here Tuesday has been halted temporarily by Hancock County authorities to await a report from the FBI laboratory in Washington.

The arm, severed crudely about two inches above the elbow, was sent by air express to the FBI, which may determine how long it was buried.

The sheriff's office has not discounted the theory of foul play and believes the arm was buried sometime in the last decade. Other residents believe the arm was amputated by a doctor and buried in the 1900's.

Bids For 89 Projects To Open Tuesday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The largest bid-opening of the year—in number of projects involved—has been scheduled for Tuesday by the Highway Department.

Eighty - nine projects for 663 miles of road improvements in 73 counties will be up for bid. In six previous bid-lettings this year, the highest number was 80, on May 26.

More than 650 miles of work is resurfacing, part of the maintenance and repair which the department wants to complete during the warm weather months. Contracts also provide for painting 95 bridges and the guard rails of 17 other structures.

The biggest construction project is a relocation of slightly more more than a mile of Ohio 7 in Steubenville. The six-million-dollar project includes a railroad grade separation, two bridges and a half-mile of interchange ramps.

Other improvements include work on U.S. 40 in Licking County, Ohio 90 in Trumbull County and Ohio 105 in Sandusky County.

To date, the department has received $41,867,895 worth of low bids on 239 projects this year.

Judge Suggests Reconsideration Of Attack Terms

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Legislature should "seriously reconsider the minimum sentence in cases of rape," Common Pleas Judge William K. Thomas suggested after sentencing an 18-year-old youth police said admitted seven rapes.

If the youth, Richard H. Blake of Cleveland serves the minimum reformatory sentence imposed Friday, he would go free after 12 years. First, however, he must go to Lima State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, the judge ordered.

Blake pleaded guilty to rape and robbery charges involving three women over an eight-month period. The judge ordered the sentences, totaling 135 years maximum, served consecutively.

The term for rape in Ohio is 3 to 20 years.

Police said Blake admitted four other rapes with which he was not charged.

Dr. Royal G. Grossman, court psychiatrist, testified that Blake was mentally deficient and had a long history of sex delinquency as a juvenile. He is one of eight children.

61 In Hancock Waited At Conservation Camp

Sixty-one Hancock County youths are expected to attend the third annual Conservation Camp July 25-26 at Tomlinson Run State Park near Pughtown.

Oliver Johnson, county agricultural agent, said activities will feature addresses by Walter Gumbel, nationally-known conservationist of the Monongahela Power Co., and Clinton Banks, nature enthusiast.

George Brieding, naturalist at Oglebay Park in Wheeling, also will discuss outdoor subjects. A wild animal exhibit will be situated in the park. The Wyandotte Archery Club will put on an exhibition.

Thirty sponsors have contributed "scholarships" or camp fees for youths. Any boy or girl between 12 and 18 may attend if recommended by a teacher, minister or civic group.

Spacemen Form Plan To Share In Profits

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — America's seven prospective spacemen have formed a plan to avoid bitter competition and give their families economic insurance.

In a copyrighted story Friday, the Indianapolis Star said the men verbally agreed to share equally whatever profits are made by the first among them to get back safely from a space flight.

The story said the airmen reached the agreement after learning they could not afford premiums on regular insurance.

Also included was the provision that a share of money, expected from publishers for first-person accounts of the trip, will go to widows and orphans of any astronaut who tries and fails.

"It also promotes solidarity and cooperation among us," said Capt. Virgil Grissom of Mitchell, Ind.

Ohio League Of Young GOP Opens Talks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio League of Young Republicans opened its convention here Friday with a speech by Ohio House Minority Leader Roger Cloud.

The former House speaker told the group that "isms," destruction of economic stability by inflation and too much monopolistic power in some persons are threatening the nation.

He continued that the threats have been parried by individual initiative and inventiveness; diffusion of government to keep it a servant, and preservation of a sound economic climate.

Cloud added the belief that some forces in the Democratic Party are moving toward massive governmental action, expenditures and taxation; a weakening of self-reliance and allowance of concentration of excessive government and economic power.

He said he disagreed with beliefs that there are no basic differences between the two major political parties.

Today the convention will elect officers and hear U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

DiSalle Approval Gives Parks Okay On Concessions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It'll be business as usual at state parks Sunday.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle signed an emergency measure Friday which modifies Ohio's Sunday blue laws, permitting state park concessionaires to be open for business on Sunday. They have been closed the past two Sundays.

The measure also:

Permits operation of the Ohio State Fair and county fairs on Sunday.

Removes Sunday travel restrictions and prohibitions against sale of merchandise connected with such travel.

Cancels prohibitions in the fields of entertainment and sports.

But the new law does not change the law prohibiting operation of other businesses on Sunday.

Asked To OK Notes

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — City Council has been asked to authorize issuance of $2,500,000 in notes in preparation for construction of a proposed City Hall here. The request was made by the Finance Committee after City Solicitor Leroy J. Contie Jr. said notes must be authorized now to permit the city to enter into a construction contract, even though the project will be financed through funds collected from a city income tax.

Bids For 89 Projects To Open Tuesday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The largest bid-opening of the year—in number of projects involved—has been scheduled for Tuesday by the Highway Department.

Eighty - nine projects for 663 miles of road improvements in 73 counties will be up for bid. In six previous bid-lettings this year, the highest number was 80, on May 26.

More than 650 miles of work is resurfacing, part of the maintenance and repair which the department wants to complete during the warm weather months. Contracts also provide for painting 95 bridges and the guard rails of 17 other structures.

The biggest construction project is a relocation of slightly more more than a mile of Ohio 7 in Steubenville. The six-million-dollar project includes a railroad grade separation, two bridges and a half-mile of interchange ramps.

Other improvements include work on U.S. 40 in Licking County, Ohio 90 in Trumbull County and Ohio 105 in Sandusky County.

To date, the department has received $41,867,895 worth of low bids on 239 projects this year.

Judge Suggests Reconsideration Of Attack Terms

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Legislature should "seriously reconsider the minimum sentence in cases of rape," Common Pleas Judge William K. Thomas suggested after sentencing an 18-year-old youth police said admitted seven rapes.

If the youth, Richard H. Blake of Cleveland serves the minimum reformatory sentence imposed Friday, he would go free after 12 years. First, however, he must go to Lima State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, the judge ordered.

Blake pleaded guilty to rape and robbery charges involving three women over an eight-month period. The judge ordered the sentences, totaling 135 years maximum, served consecutively.

The term for rape in Ohio is 3 to 20 years.

Police said Blake admitted four other rapes with which he was not charged.

Dr. Royal G. Grossman, court psychiatrist, testified that Blake was mentally deficient and had a long history of sex delinquency as a juvenile. He is one of eight children.

61 In Hancock Waited At Conservation Camp

Sixty-one Hancock County youths are expected to attend the third annual Conservation Camp July 25-26 at Tomlinson Run State Park near Pughtown.

Oliver Johnson, county agricultural agent, said activities will feature addresses by Walter Gumbel, nationally-known conservationist of the Monongahela Power Co., and Clinton Banks, nature enthusiast.

George Brieding, naturalist at Oglebay Park in Wheeling, also will discuss outdoor subjects. A wild animal exhibit will be situated in the park. The Wyandotte Archery Club will put on an exhibition.

Thirty sponsors have contributed "scholarships" or camp fees for youths. Any boy or girl between 12 and 18 may attend if recommended by a teacher, minister or civic group.

Spacemen Form Plan To Share In Profits

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — America's seven prospective spacemen have formed a plan to avoid bitter competition and give their families economic insurance.

In a copyrighted story Friday, the Indianapolis Star said the men verbally agreed to share equally whatever profits are made by the first among them to get back safely from a space flight.

The story said the airmen reached the agreement after learning they could not afford premiums on regular insurance.

Also included was the provision that a share of money, expected from publishers for first-person accounts of the trip, will go to widows and orphans of any astronaut who tries and fails.

"It also promotes solidarity and cooperation among us," said Capt. Virgil Grissom of Mitchell, Ind.

Ohio League Of Young GOP Opens Talks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio League of Young Republicans opened its convention here Friday with a speech by Ohio House Minority Leader Roger Cloud.

The former House speaker told the group that "isms," destruction of economic stability by inflation and too much monopolistic power in some persons are threatening the nation.

He continued that the threats have been parried by individual initiative and inventiveness; diffusion of government to keep it a servant, and preservation of a sound economic climate.

Cloud added the belief that some forces in the Democratic Party are moving toward massive governmental action, expenditures and taxation; a weakening of self-reliance and allowance of concentration of excessive government and economic power.

He said he disagreed with beliefs that there are no basic differences between the two major political parties.

Today the convention will elect officers and hear U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

DiSalle Approval Gives Parks Okay On Concessions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It'll be business as usual at state parks Sunday.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle signed an emergency measure Friday which modifies Ohio's Sunday blue laws, permitting state park concessionaires to be open for business on Sunday. They have been closed the past two Sundays.

The measure also:

Permits operation of the Ohio State Fair and county fairs on Sunday.

Removes Sunday travel restrictions and prohibitions against sale of merchandise connected with such travel.

Cancels prohibitions in the fields of entertainment and sports.

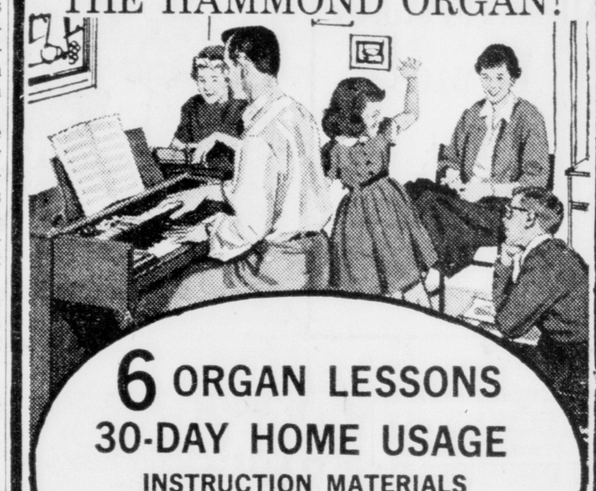

But the new law does not change the law prohibiting operation of other businesses on Sunday.

Asked To OK Notes

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — City Council has been asked to authorize issuance of $2,500,000 in notes in preparation for construction of a proposed City Hall here. The request was made by the Finance Committee after City Solicitor Leroy J. Contie Jr. said notes must be authorized now to permit the city to enter into a construction contract, even though the project will be financed through funds collected from a city income tax.
